Our Backers

Austin High School,

Austin, Texas

Sometimes it happens in the crowd at a football game—you may have forgotten there is such a feeling—and then you hear that loud, clear yell, "Yea Austin!"—or someone might whistle "Loyal Forever" in the hall—You get a lump in your throat—and you become aware of her for the first time.

Her greatness fills your heart, and you know her presence means loyalty to old A. H. S. You can't understand how she knows when you need her, but she's always near when you do—Then you find yourself standing and shouting louder than anyone else.—It's hard to believe at first, but it seems to grow more and more through the years—Some call it "sentiment," but you choose to call it "school spirit."

Often you wonder just what is behind that big old brick building at 12th and Rio Grande, and it's moments like this that you know it's "The Spirit of Austin High!"

Now you know that she keeps the lamp of loyalty lit through the years and your imprint is left in her book of memories, the COMET.

P. BASHARA

The "Spirit of Austin High" rules supreme over all loyal Maroons, and all is well in Austin High. She rules all but one. . .

THE SPIRIT OF MISCHIEF!

Maybe you'd like to know who caused that smudge on your English theme and that broken bottle of ink in your locker—or what made you fail that exam—Well, blame it all on him!

HE SEEMS TO BE EVERYWHERE!

Our Teachers

Teachers prepare loyal Maroons for the future. The seriousness of the future and that of education are stressed by them constantly.

His friendly voice greeting us over the daily broadcasts.

Chuckling over the paper and enjoying a coke with Mr. Teel, Mr. Baker takes a minute out.

Smiling his way through a busy schedule, Mr. T. P. Baker works hard as our principal to improve Austin High School.

Never too busy for a chat or a friendly hello, he's become familiar to all of us.

Upon his capable shoulders falls the responsibility of all the insoluble problems. His genuine love for young people and his deep-rooted interest in education have always brought him out on top.

"Just a minute, Mr. Baker," ... Jane Beaty catches up with our busy principal...

Mr. Wittner and Mr. Baker ready to open up on a bright Monday Morning.

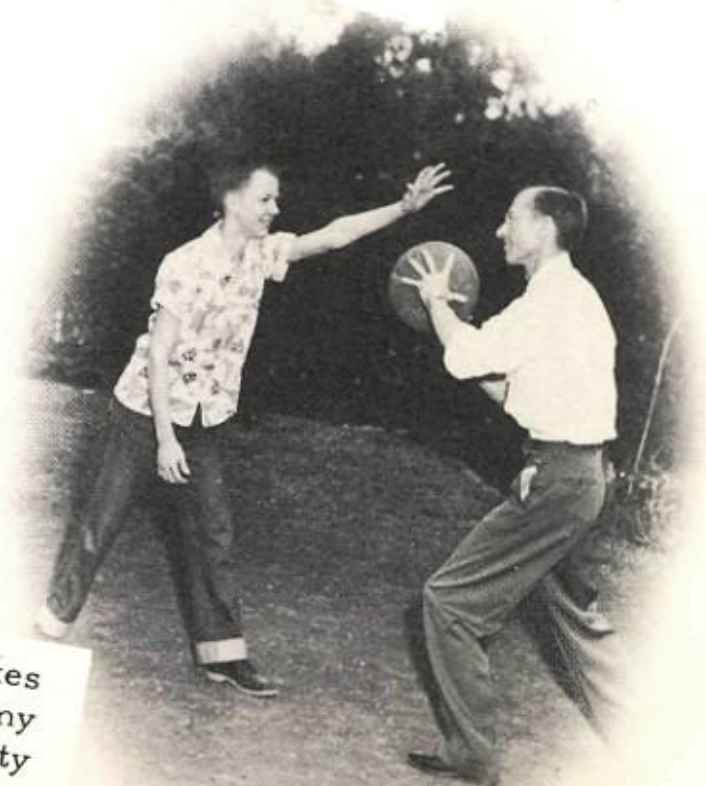

Leaving after another busy day. . .

How green does your garden grow?

His Saturdays are just as full
. . . . at home

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." And Tommy realizes his dad is still pretty good with that ball.

Dr. J. W. Edgar, Superintendent of Schools

Students in A.H.S. found a greater and more varied program last September when the big doors swung open...

...A new social director with exciting ideas and plans...building improvements... the lunchroom's beautification from door to door...and plans for a new stadium were fully approved....

...Our thanks again to such a marvelous group of board members and Dr. Edgar ...a genial friend to all, and an understanding companion..this busy gentleman always has a smile for those who pass him.

Mr. Sam Martin, Principal Night and Industrial Schools

Mr. Martin...grand fella...philosophizing around
...fussed an "aw heck" if something messed itself up...

Miss Martha Agnor and Mr. Lipscomb Anderson, Deans

Miss Agnor and Mr. Anderson...they gained our confidence and good will right away with their friendly attitudes toward students.....

Mr. Wittner...there just wasn't a problem he couldn't solve...and when his voice came over the P.A. system at the end of a long day, we knew it was time to go home.

Mr. Nick Wittner, Vice-Principal

Mr. Woodrow Wilson and Ben Jack Kinney

REGISTRATION -- Midterm really presented problems for our hardworking faculty and student aides!

Mr. Chase Winfrey and Glenn Clark

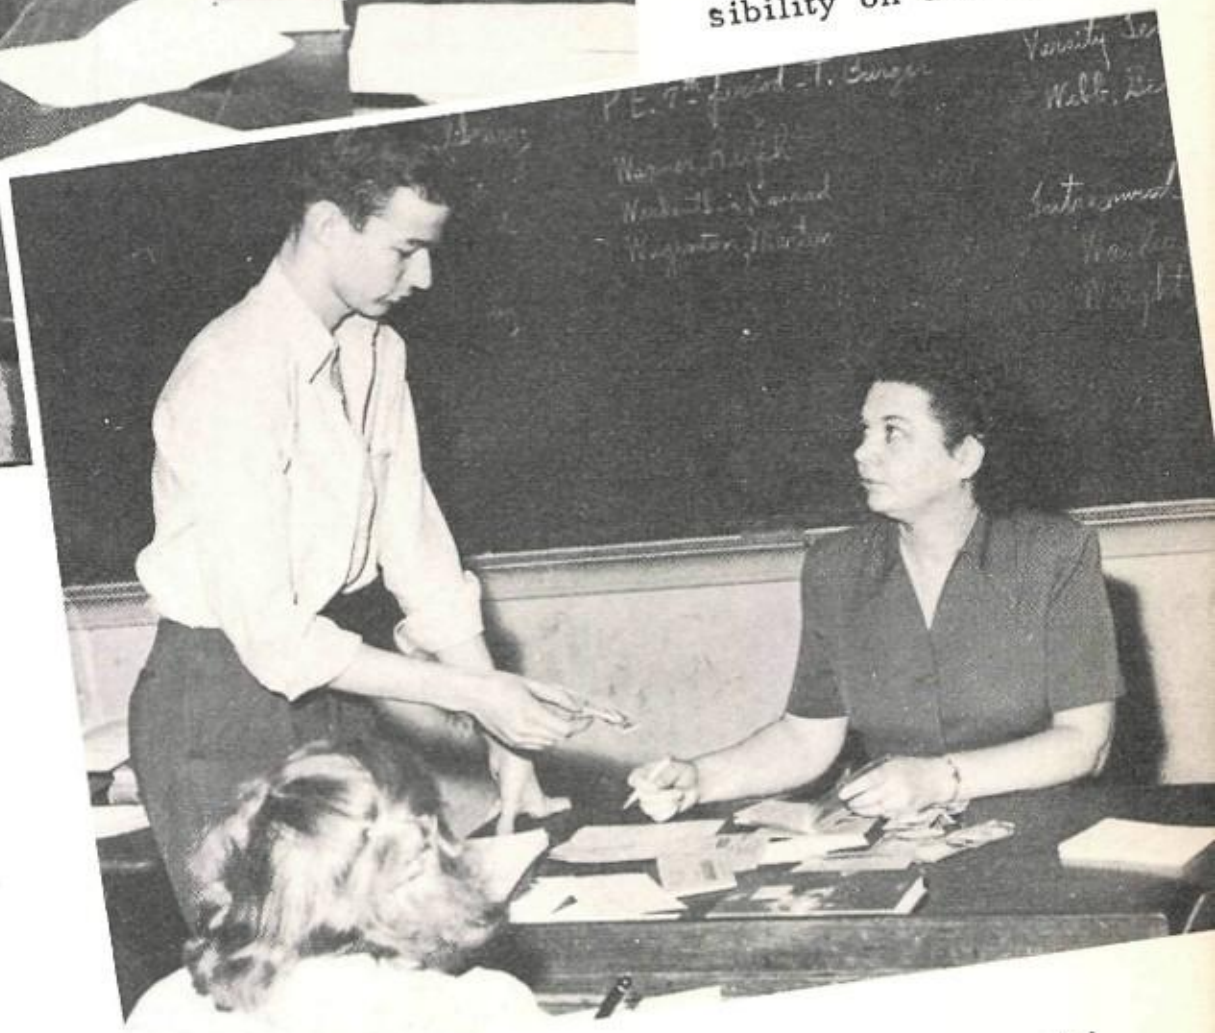

Banking each Tuesday was another responsibility on advisors.

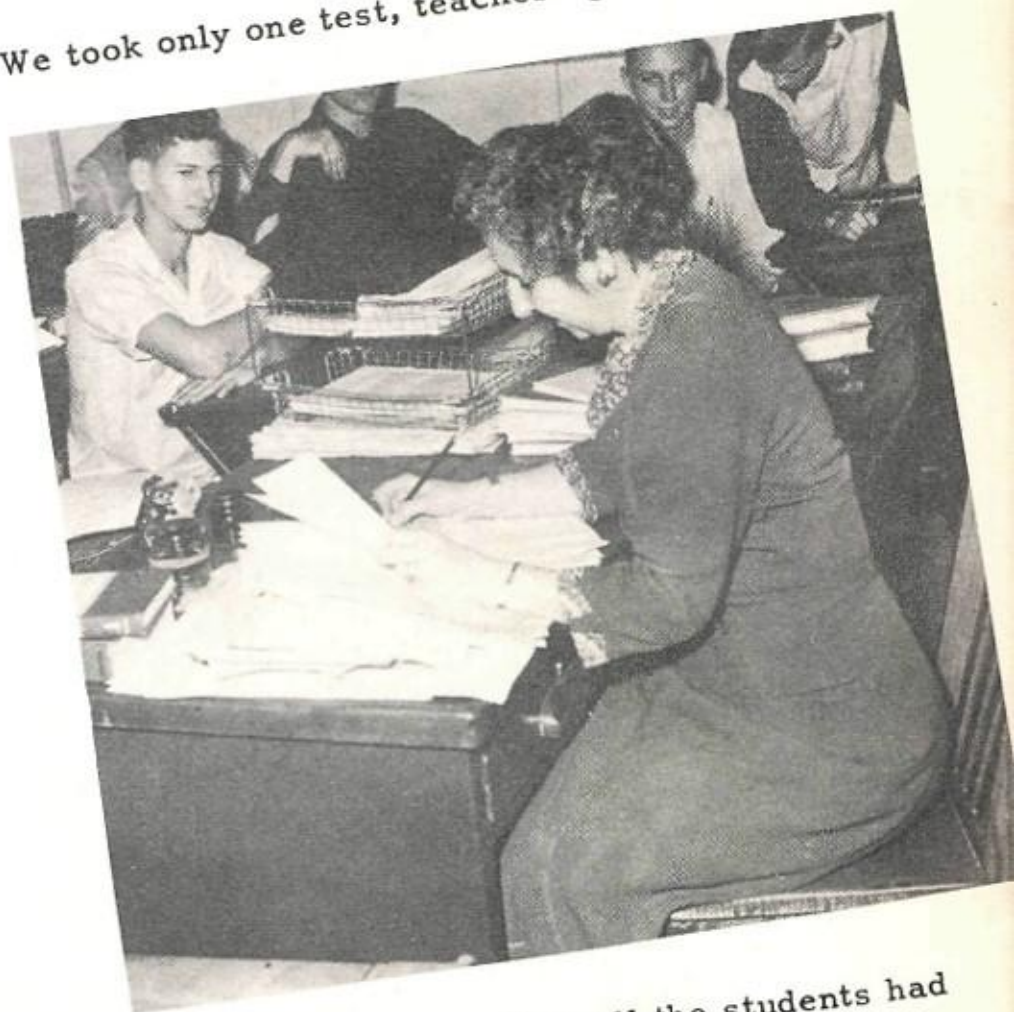

Relaxing at an off period . . .

Problems enough getting papers graded, preparing lessons, attending meetings, and chaperoning dances, but our faculty never seemed to be too busy to help us settle our problems.

Their active interest in all our undertakings proved they were genuinely interested in us and our future.

We took only one test, teachers graded hundreds!

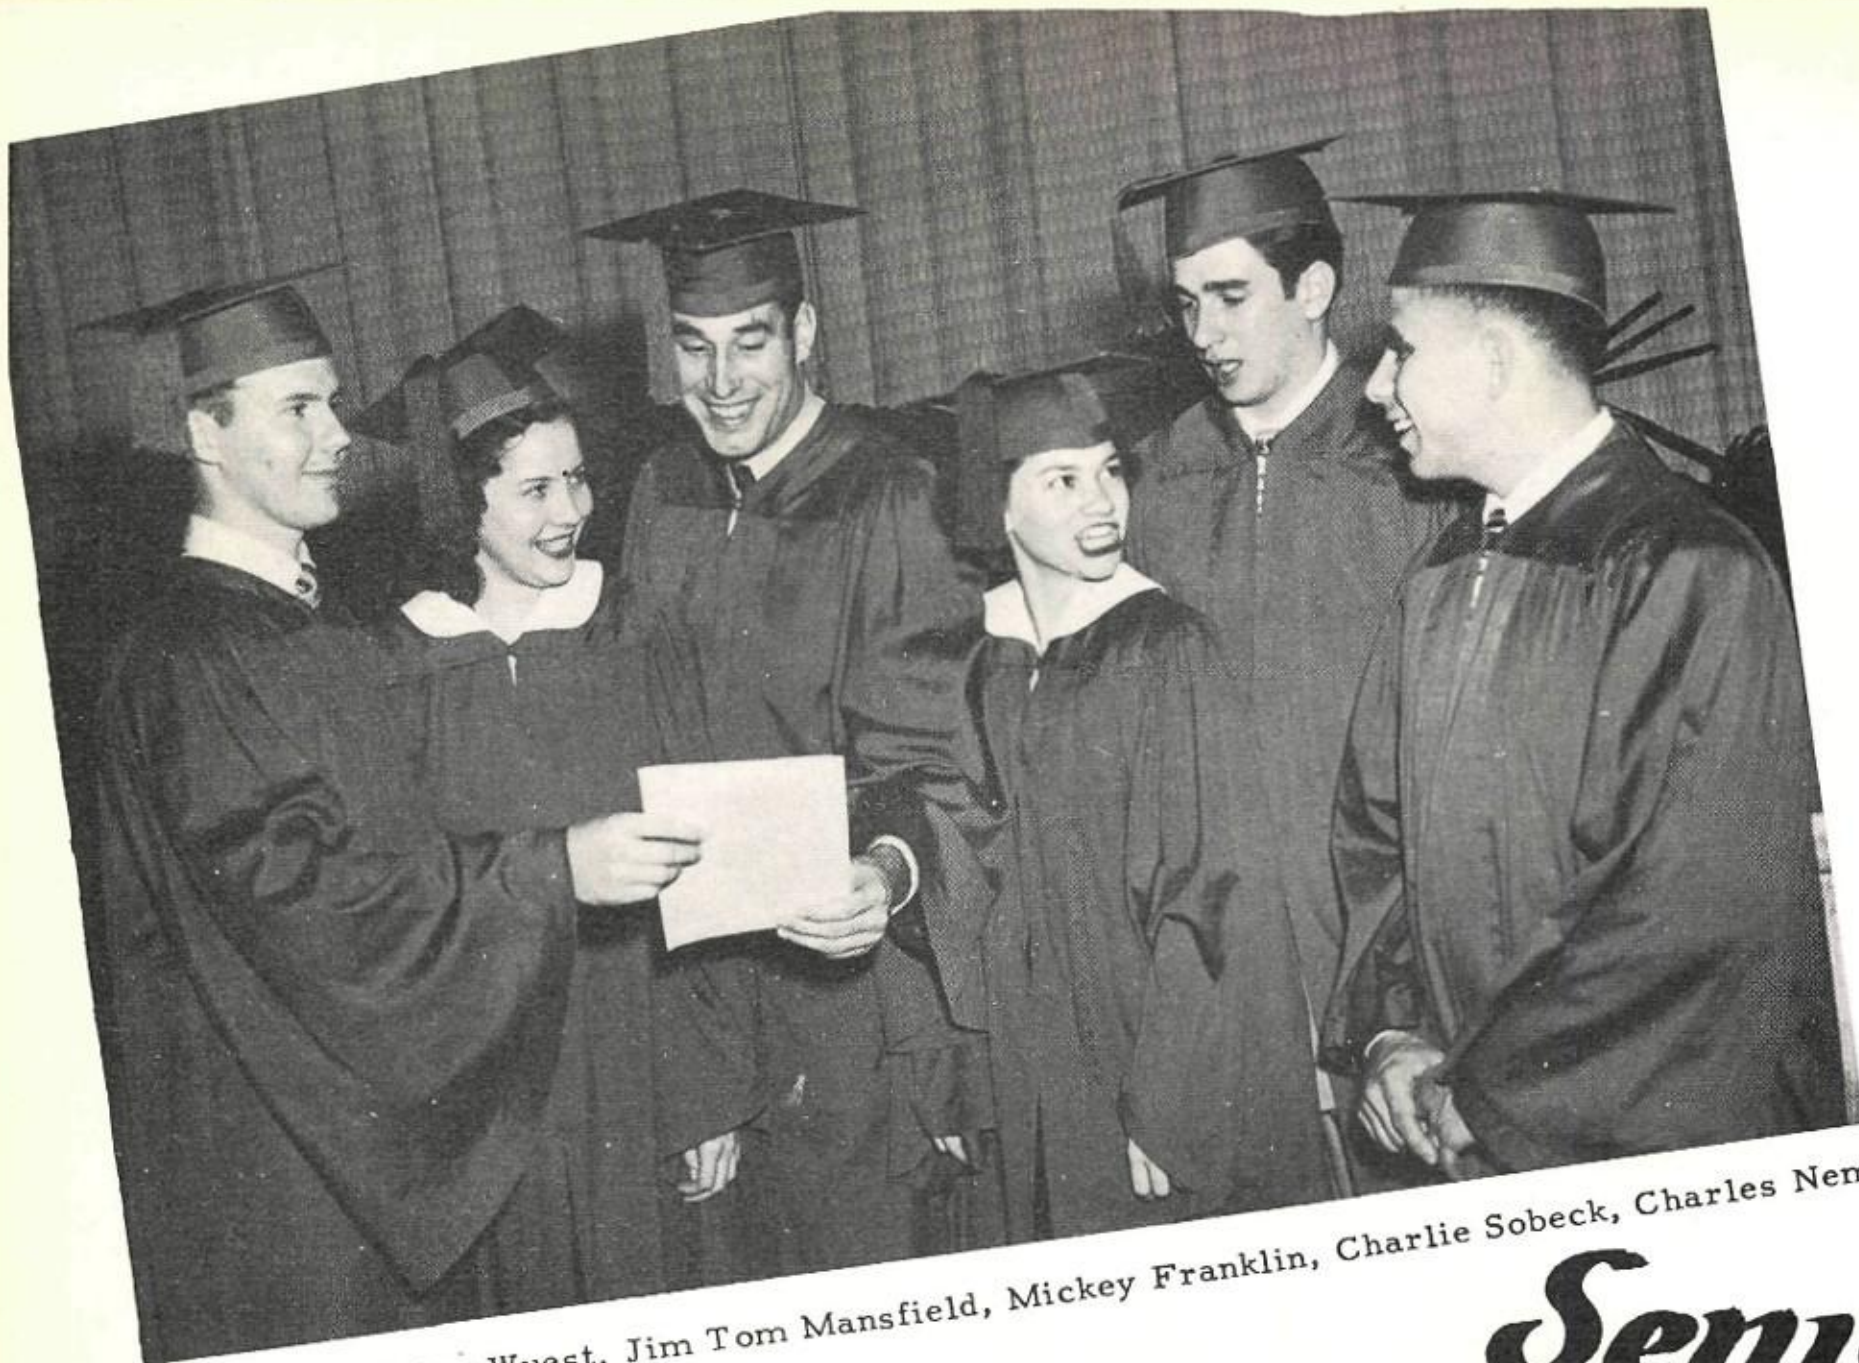

Signing out, long after all the students had gone home.

Looking happy over their newly-elected spring offices are Claire Caswell, Executive Committee; Rosemari Haskew, Secretary; Conneen Sanders, President; Georganne Perry, Corresponding Secretary; Leslie Giddens, Sgt. at Arms; Dean Cox, Clerk; Kenneth Ashworth, Treasurer; and Windy Smith, Vice-President.

The Student Council, made up of representatives from each advisory, sponsors such school activities as Friendship Week, Color Day, Cap-Hat Day, the cleaning up of our patios for recreational purposes, and the school's annual May Fete. They are also responsible for the point system and our Student directories.

5. The crew and cast of "On Borrowed Time."

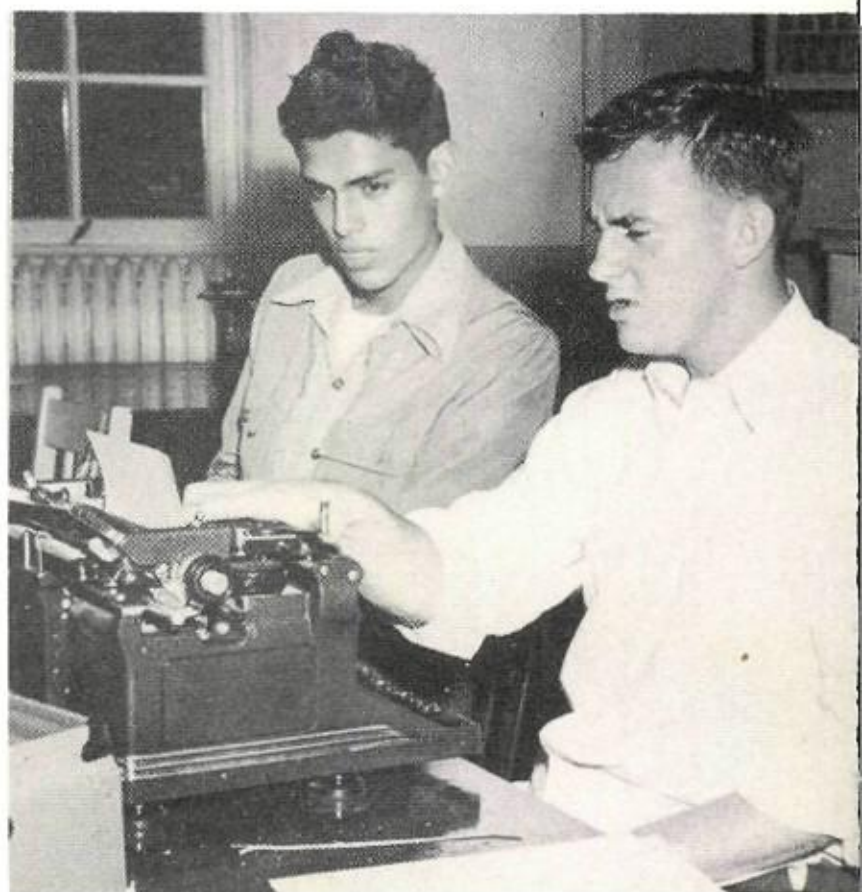

With brains, tact and charm, our Editor Betty McBrayer, inspired the staff to work harder, so that this Comet might be the best yet!

"Hey! What happened to that layout board I put here a minute ago?... Don't put that rubber cement on my arm!... What can we say about this girl? I never saw her before..." ...These and a million other groans, complaints, quips, and sighs came forth from this year's Comet staff as they labored-and we do mean labored-over hundreds of pages of copy and even more hundreds of pictures.

Many were the week-ends...yes, even night sessions...we spent slaving over paper-cutters and hot typewriters...

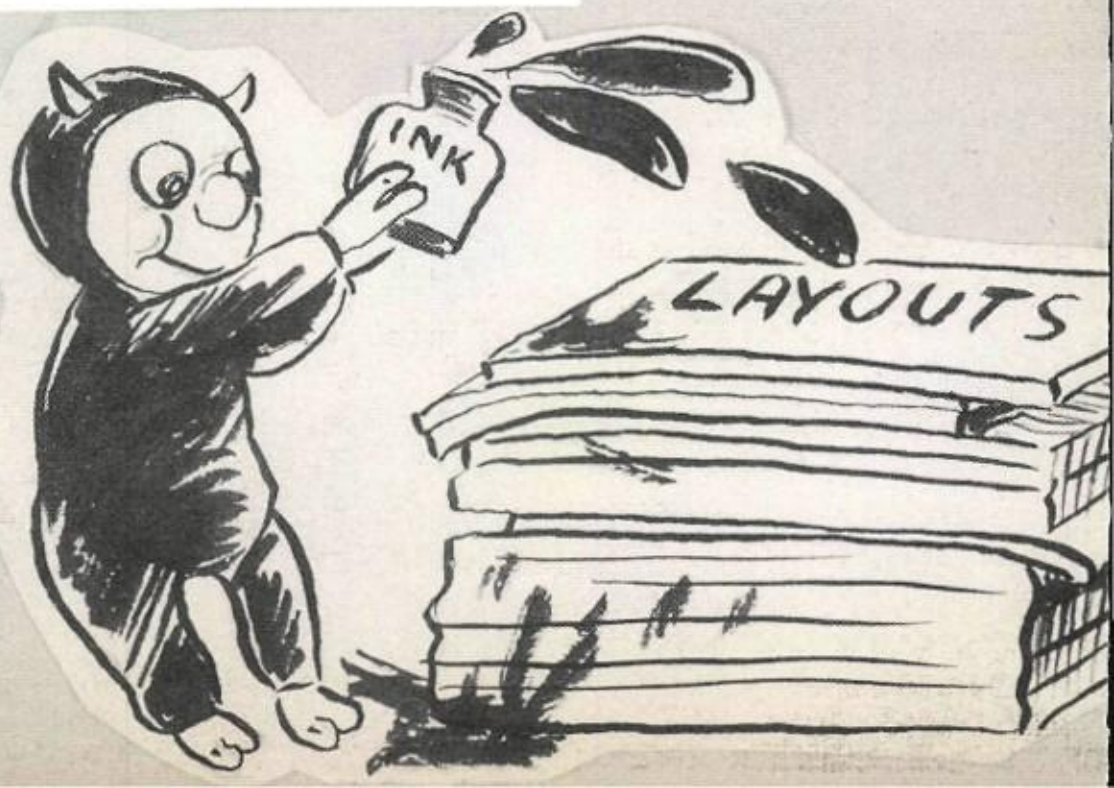

But at last it was all over...There was "our" Comet with its beautiful Maroon cover and 272 pages...As we opened it for the first time, we thrilled each time we saw a picture we pasted, a line we wrote, or an idea we had... That's when we discovered it was really worth it after all.

Comet Staff

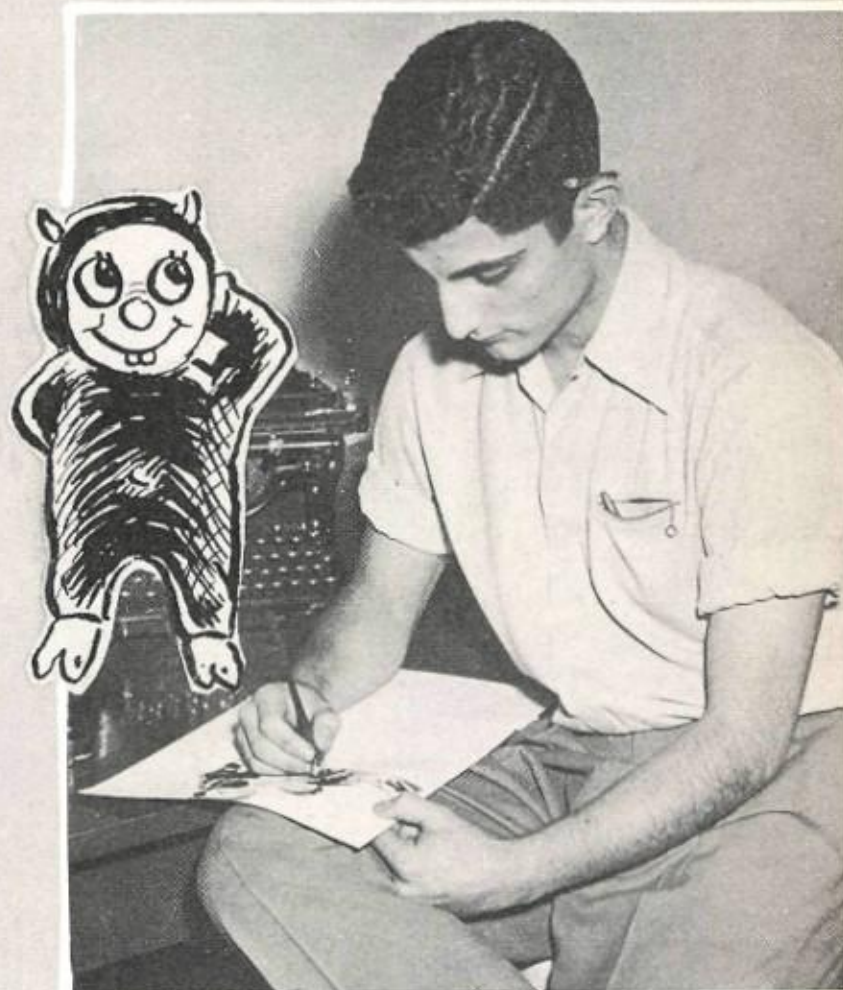

Henry Montez and Paul Earney had many a perplexing snag as they worked far into the night on the extra-large sports section.

Murray Patton, the Comet's photographer, is noted for his tireless efforts to produce piles and piles of good pictures.

Creating the character used in the theme of this year's Comet, Phil Bashara, our Art Editor, spent many tedious hours over his drawing board with pen in hand.

Joe Boyd and Pat Hargis, Faculty Section Editors referred to old Comets, while Edwin Jordon, dictated copy for their club pages to Shirley Tanenbaum.

Mike Gillespie, everybody's helper, Steve Smith, Class Editor, Beverly Smith, Buzzy Rankine and Janice Kniker did a great job on the Class Section.

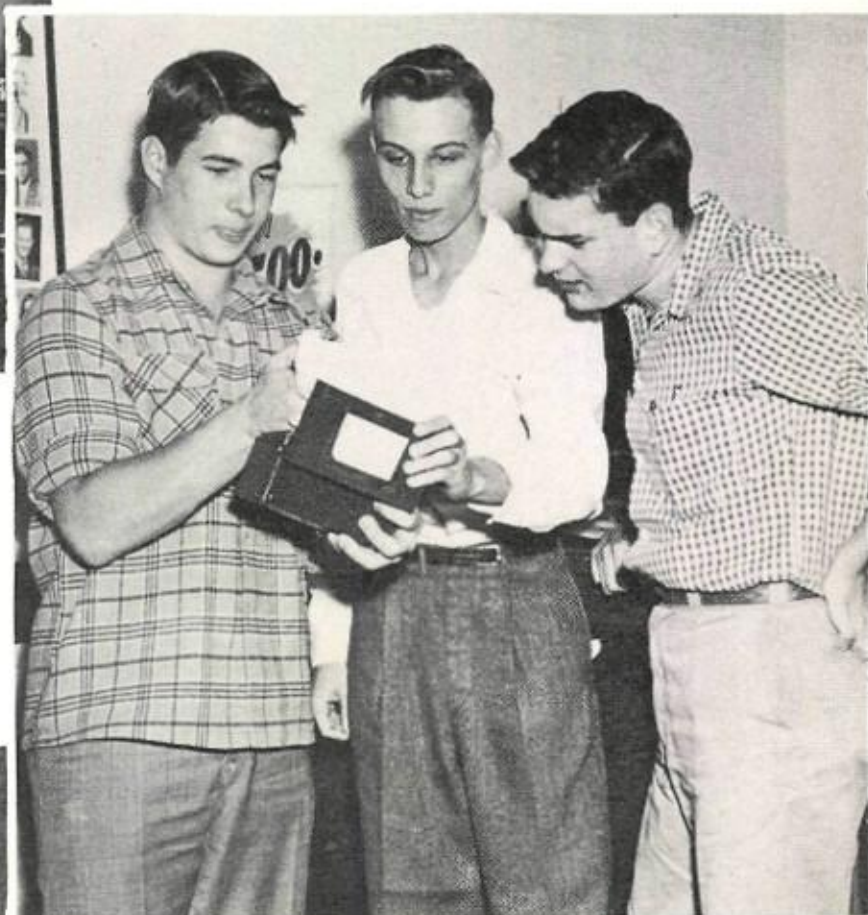

Maroon

Bill McKinney, Exchange Assistant, J. Ray Reagor, Sports Editor, and Phil Blanchard, Circulation Manager, inspect the joke box where those hilarious Maroon anecdotes are kept.

Bill Wright, Ed Rightor, and Jo Ann Dickerson, Editor, back on last year's Maroon Beauty Revue layout.

The mid-term graduating staff, Patsy Moore, Ross Anglin, Jane Melin, Joan McIntyre, and Darlene Prouse show various reactions to Pat Carroll's fashion columns.

Staff

Lucille Sims and Amba Manning, Co-Copy Editors, and K. D. Gullette, Co-Feature Editor, prepare the copy for page three.

The Maroon, the official publication of Austin High School, is the voice of the combined students of A.H.S. It faithfully records the history and events of the school year.

Its pages have reported the elections of class officers and of student presidents, the progress of the Maroon football team to the state finals, the Slobbovian invasion, outstanding social events, Red Dragon plays, National Honor Society initiations and the host of other activities that fill the school year at Austin High.

Millicent Huff, Rosemary Askew, and Tommy Taylor work hard to make those Monday night deadlines.

Patty Gideon, Contract Sales Manager, Carol Grimes, Advertising Manager, Mary Louise Sanders, Ad Copy Editor, and Phin Washer, Exchange Editor, confer about advertising problems.

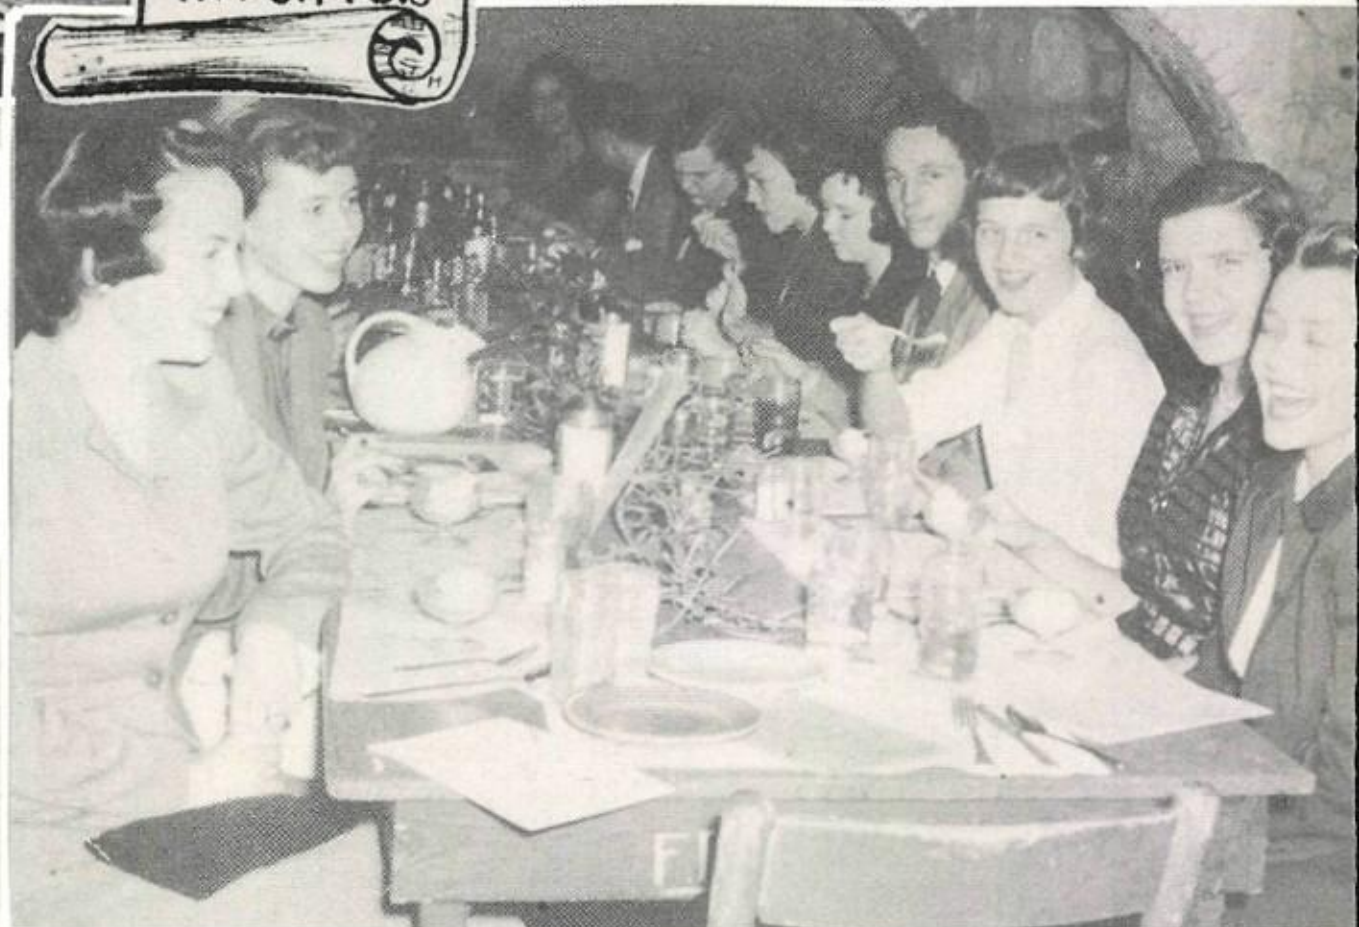

The Quill and Scroll, the national highschool journalism fraternity, is composed of students who have had at least 80 column inches published in a school publication, such as the Comet or the Maroon. They must also be in the upper third of their class and be recommended by the publications sponsor.

This organization is the highest journalistic society to which a high school student can aspire.

Presenting a gift to Stuart Long, the guest speaker, are Quill and Scroll officers, Jo Ann Dickerson, Sec.-Treasurer; Rosemari Haskew, Spring Reporter; Ed Rightor, Vice-President; Betty McBrayer, President; and Pat Folmar, Fall Reporter.

Pausing from their literary labors are Quill and Scrollers Darlene Prouse, Connie Clarke, Ross Anglin, Pat Carroll, Jane Melin, Joan McIntyre, Patsy Moore, Betty McBrayer, Millicent Huff, Ed Rightor, and J. Ray Reagor.

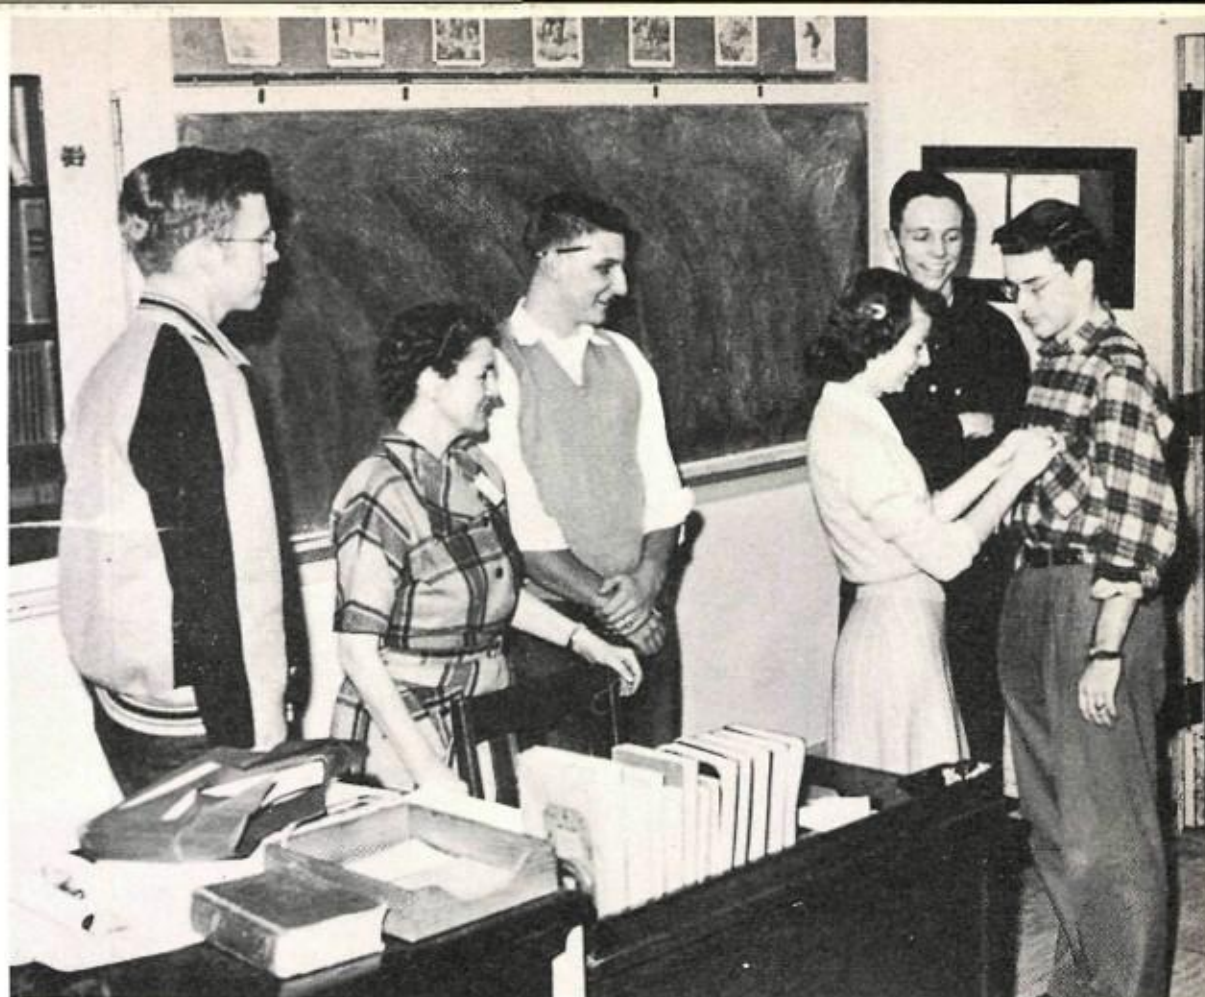

Enjoying the banquet in foreground are Pat Folmar, Rosemari Haskew, Ross Anglin, Pat Carroll, Millicent Huff, and Patsy Moore.

To be a member of the National Honor Society a 12A must have an average of 90 and a 12B must have an average of 85. Each teacher ranks these students on service, leadership, and character. The National Honor Society opened a P.X. in the Safety Patrol room where school supplies of good quality can be purchased at the lowest prices possible.

Making last minute preparations for their debate are Charles Caldwell, Wiley Mangum, J. Ray Reagor, Dolph Sim, Phin Washer, Robert Akin and Edward Rightor. J. Ray and Edward are the intramural boys debate winners.

Paced by a state finalist in male competition and a semi-finalist girls aggregation, the debate squad rolled up an enviable record during its rambles over Texas this year.

Getting instructions on their next debate from Coach Guy Bizzell are Peggy Huddleston, 116 Ester Battle, Amba Manning, Marilyn McBrine, Kathryn Draper, Janet Hughes, and Lucile Sims.

In the State Meet Bill Wright and Dolph Simon were finalists, and Lucile Sims and Joanne Lawlor were semi-finalists.

The Brackenridge Eagles made a scrap of this ball game, but they were just not in the class with the hard-charging Maroons. In one of his best nights Cavileer ran the Eagles dizzy with some dazzling whipping runs over the tackles and around the ends. It took the

Austin 21 Waco 7

In the second game of the season the Maroons proved that the 27-6 victory over Jeff was no fluke. Putting together a blocked punt by big Pat Pate and Morris Nelson, a sensational 42-yard sprint by Cavileer, and the steady pounding ground drive, Austin throttled the defending '48 state champions, 21-7.

Littlepage played a great defensive game, recovering a Tiger fumble which set up an Austin score. Bobo Smith booted all 3 P.A.T.'s from placement for a perfect record while John Salyer played a fine offensive game.

Warren sweeps the Arlington Heights end displaying his sprinter's speed to advantage.

San Jacinto 6

Austin caught fire in the second half to overcome a Bear lead and go on to win a hard-fought 14-6 victory over a fighting Houston outfit. The Maroons didn't look good in the first half when San Jacinto matched our ground offense with fine passing. However, Johnny Salyer, Morris Nelson, and John Cavileer put Austin ahead with running spurts that gained steadily throughout the second half. Salyer connected with Meeks in the end zone for the first tally and with five minutes left, Warren swung around end for the deciding T.D. that gave the Crimson a well-deserved victory.

Cavileer is hit from all sides but plunges on, dragging San Jacinto players with him.

Austin 6 Arlington Heights 7

Austin played one of its hardest games of the season against Arlington Heights, but came out on the short end of a 6-7 score. Salyer, Warren, and Cavileer starred in the backfield, while Pate, Earney, and Trafton sparked the line.

Arlington Heights scored early in the second quarter, and kicked the extra point, which was to win the game for them.

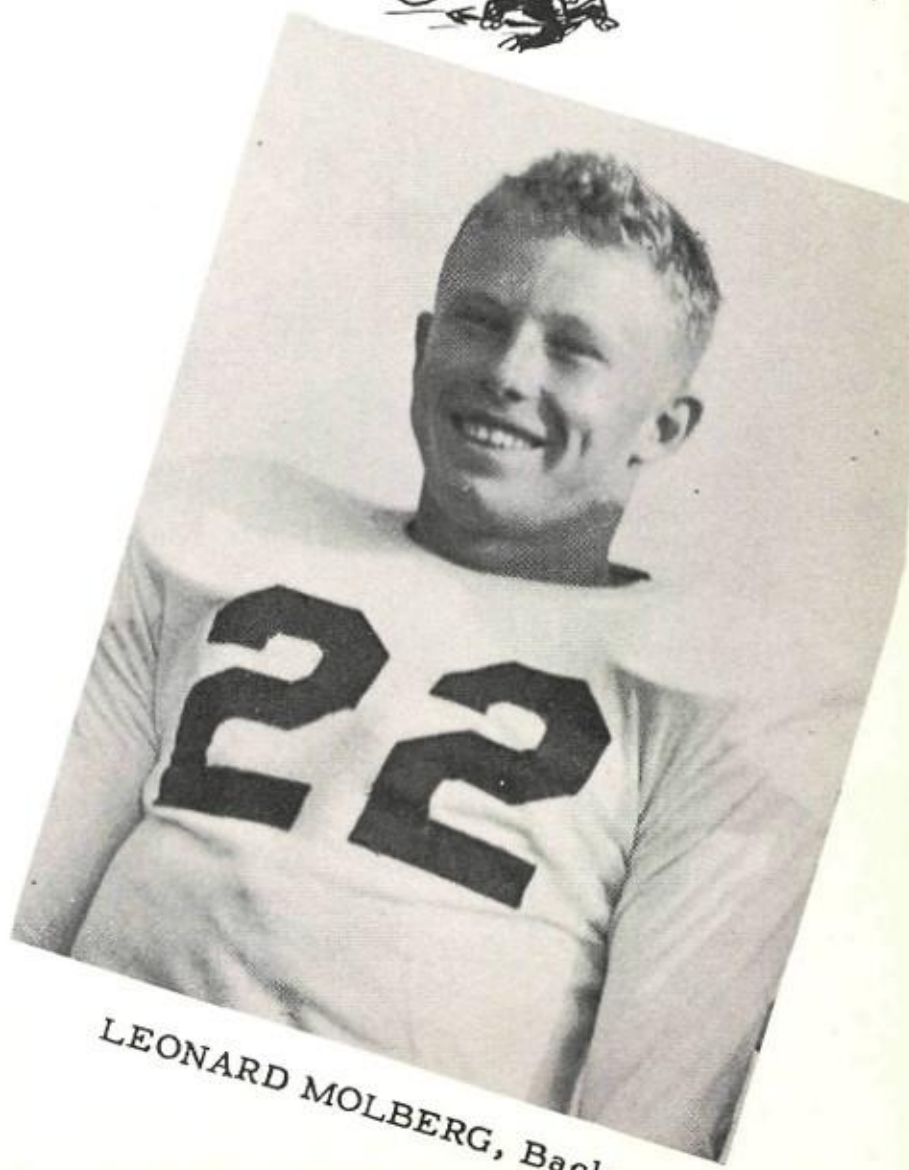

Five minutes deep in the third quarter Studer blocked a Jacket punt, and covered the ball over the goal line for 6 points. The conversion was wide by a very little margin - a heart-break for the Maroon fans.

Twice more the desperate Maroons threatened the Jacket goal line, but lost the ball each time on downs.

The Galveston scoreboard boasts an easy victory for the Maroons.

Austin 19 Galveston 6

Austin packed too much power for a Ball High team that had previously been unscored upon. The Maroons stayed strictly on the ground despite the muddy field and rolled up 249 yards while holding the Tors to 143. The stalwarts in the line were Pat Pate, Bill Trafton, and Eddie Morris, who opened up the holes for the ball carriers as they ripped the Ball line to shreds. John Salyer accounted for all three of Austin's touchdowns on short line plunges, but Warren and Cavileer lent gallant hands.

Austin 18 Temple 13

The Temple Wildcats threw scare into the Maroons on a muddy field that kept both teams punting. Temple scored first when a Wildcat blocked a delayed Eckert kick. Austin duplicated the trick when Seaholm grabbed a Studer blocked punt and went 63 yards to score. Austin went ahead 12-6 when Salyer fired a pass to Hargis. The Wildcats struck back with a fake pass play that sent Roy Pace racing into the end zone.

A few minutes later Pace broke loose with Warren in hot pursuit. Bobb proved faster though when he dropped Pace on the six-inch line. Littlepage, Salyer, Earney, and Studer played great game as Austin staved off a Temple rally to win a very close contest 18-13.

AUSTIN 40 VICTORIA 0

Little Victoria held the irrepressible Maroons to only two touchdowns in the first half of the one-sided game, but in the second half Austin ran wild and rolled up four more touchdowns.

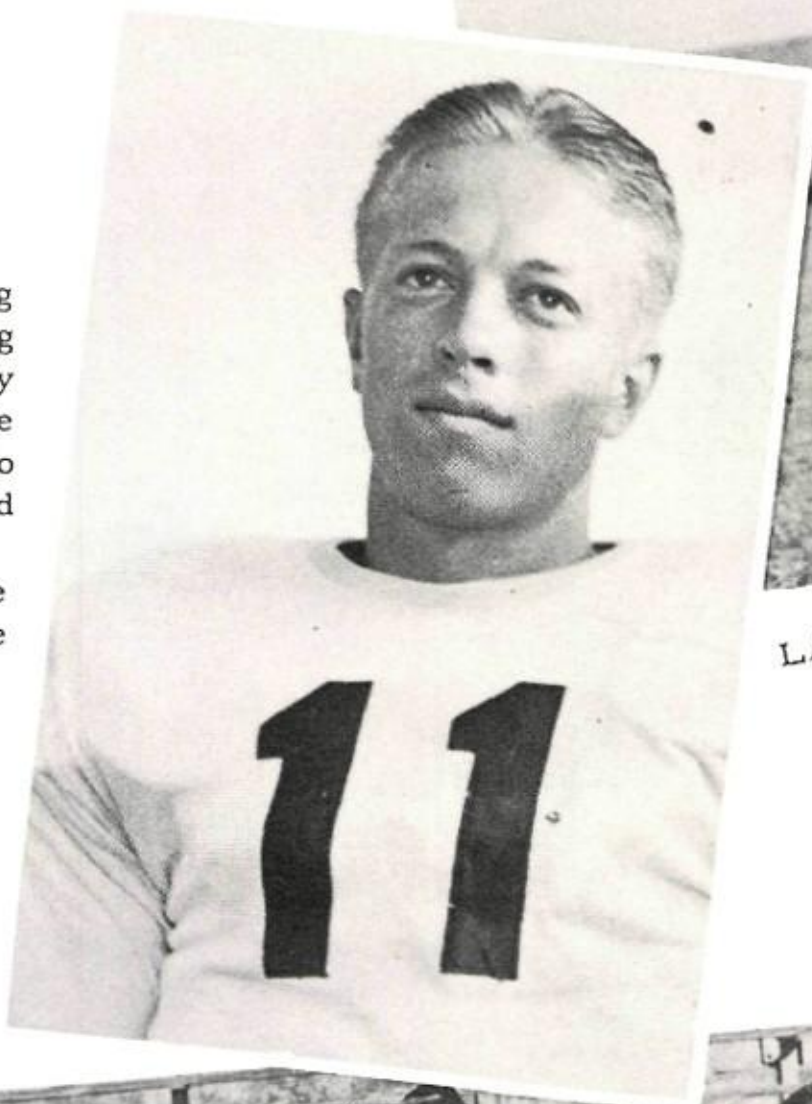

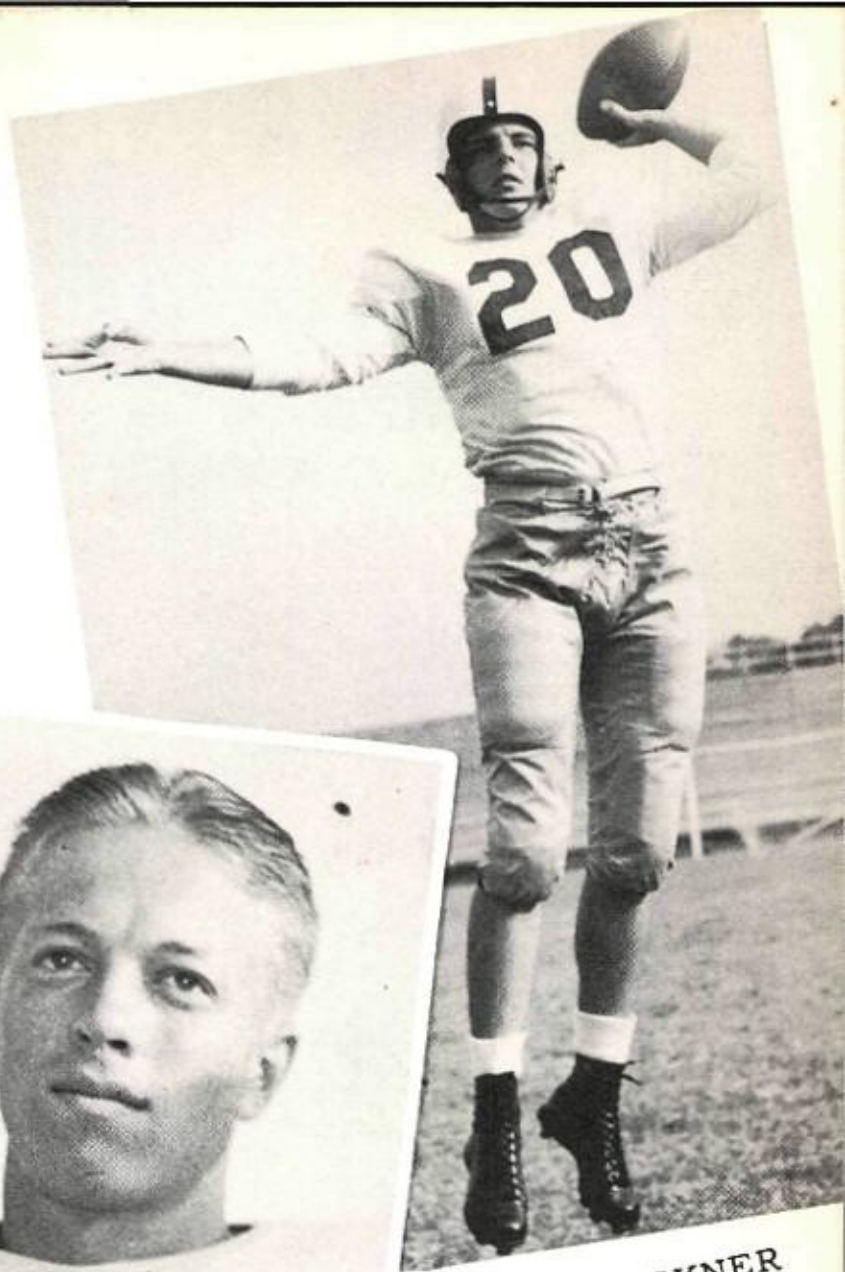

The Stingarees, though they fought the Maroons at every turn, were thoroughly outclassed by the stronger team.

AUSTIN 14 KERRVILLE 0

The Maroons outfought a hard-fighting hill-country eleven that featured hard running Donnie Smith. The Antlers' line was probably the best the Maroons ran up against as Kerrville stopped favorite Austin plays. Salyer passed to Frederick for 6 points in the second quarter and Bobo's conversion was good.

Austin stopped a barrage of Arnecke passes and Cavileer made it 14-0. Bobo made the extra point.

The flashback running of Bobby Warren offset a surprising Duane Nutte charged passing attack that had Austin Highers on their feet. Johnny Salyer opened the scoring on a bullet pass to Morris Nelson, who made a leaping catch in the end zone. Stan Studer blocked a crucial punt that led to a much-needed touchdown when Bradshaw scooped it up and galloped to the Tiger 12.

Cavileer carried behind terrific blocking by Salyer for the score.

A devastating ground game spelled out victory once more for Austin's romping Maroons as John Salyer, John Cavileer, and Bobby Warren raced over an inspired but out-manned Corpus Christi eleven. The potent Maroon line and the great defensive work of Bobo "Automatic" Smith stopped the Bucs cold on both the ground and in the air. This win gave the Maroons the district 14AA flag and enabled Austin to advance to the state play-offs.

Travis Eckert's fine punting kept the determined Tigers in the hole all afternoon with exacting core was tied 19-19 and were tied when Warren unt and streaked through TD.

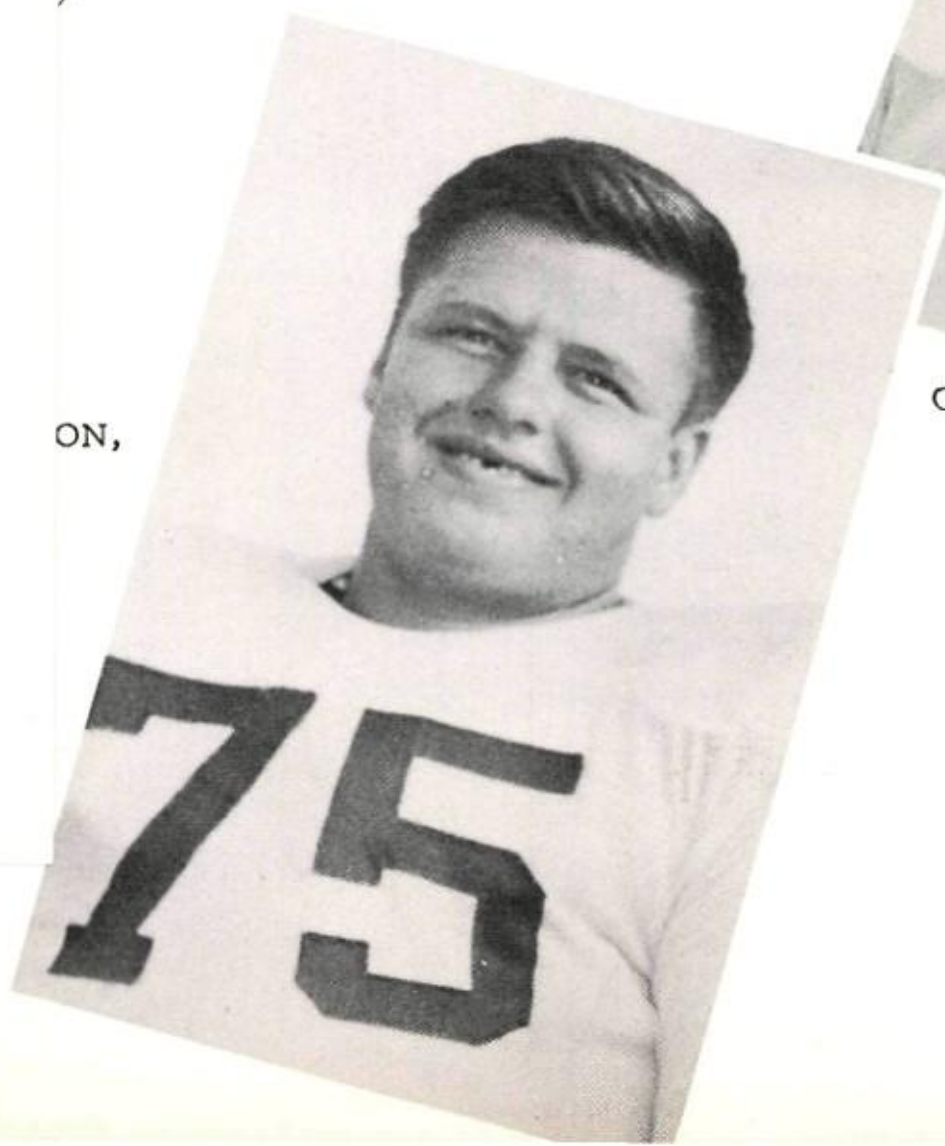

Tommy Flow keeps his record of always being the first man on the field.

With seconds left, Warren outran the entire Corsicana team for the final tally which upped the score to a 33-19 Maroon victory.

Austin 20 Port Arthur 14

In what was probably the sweetest victory of the year, the Maroons battered the mighty Port Arthur Yellow Jackets into submission to move into the final round of the state Class AA football campaign. Austin scored in the first 75 seconds when Flow pushed a Jacket into Al Pessara's punt and Cunningham fell on the ball in the end zone for six points. With a minute remaining in the first quarter, Cavileer pounded around left end untouched to make it 14-0. Seconds before the first half ended, Cavileer took a flat pass from Salyer and went 53 yards behind perfect blocking only to be dropped one inch from paydirt.

In the third quarter Bobo Smith faked a field goal try, hit Salyer in the flat, and Johnny raced over standing. Huddleston, Van Fleet, Earney, Seaholm, all were stand-outs in the line, while Nelson and Warren sparked the backfield.

It just wasn't in the books for Austin to win the state title. The Maroons played the finest game of the season but fell shy a single point from a tie and maybe a victory.

The Coyotes scored first on a pass from Waggoner to Fouts to make it 7-0. The Maroons struck back on a little-used play in which Nelson shot to Bobby Frederick for a touchdown. The Coyotes made it 14-6 on a hand-off to Waggoner who crashed left tackle for six points.

Warren fired to Nelson who failed to make a first down by a yard and the Coyotes got the ball on downs.

YEA MAROONS!

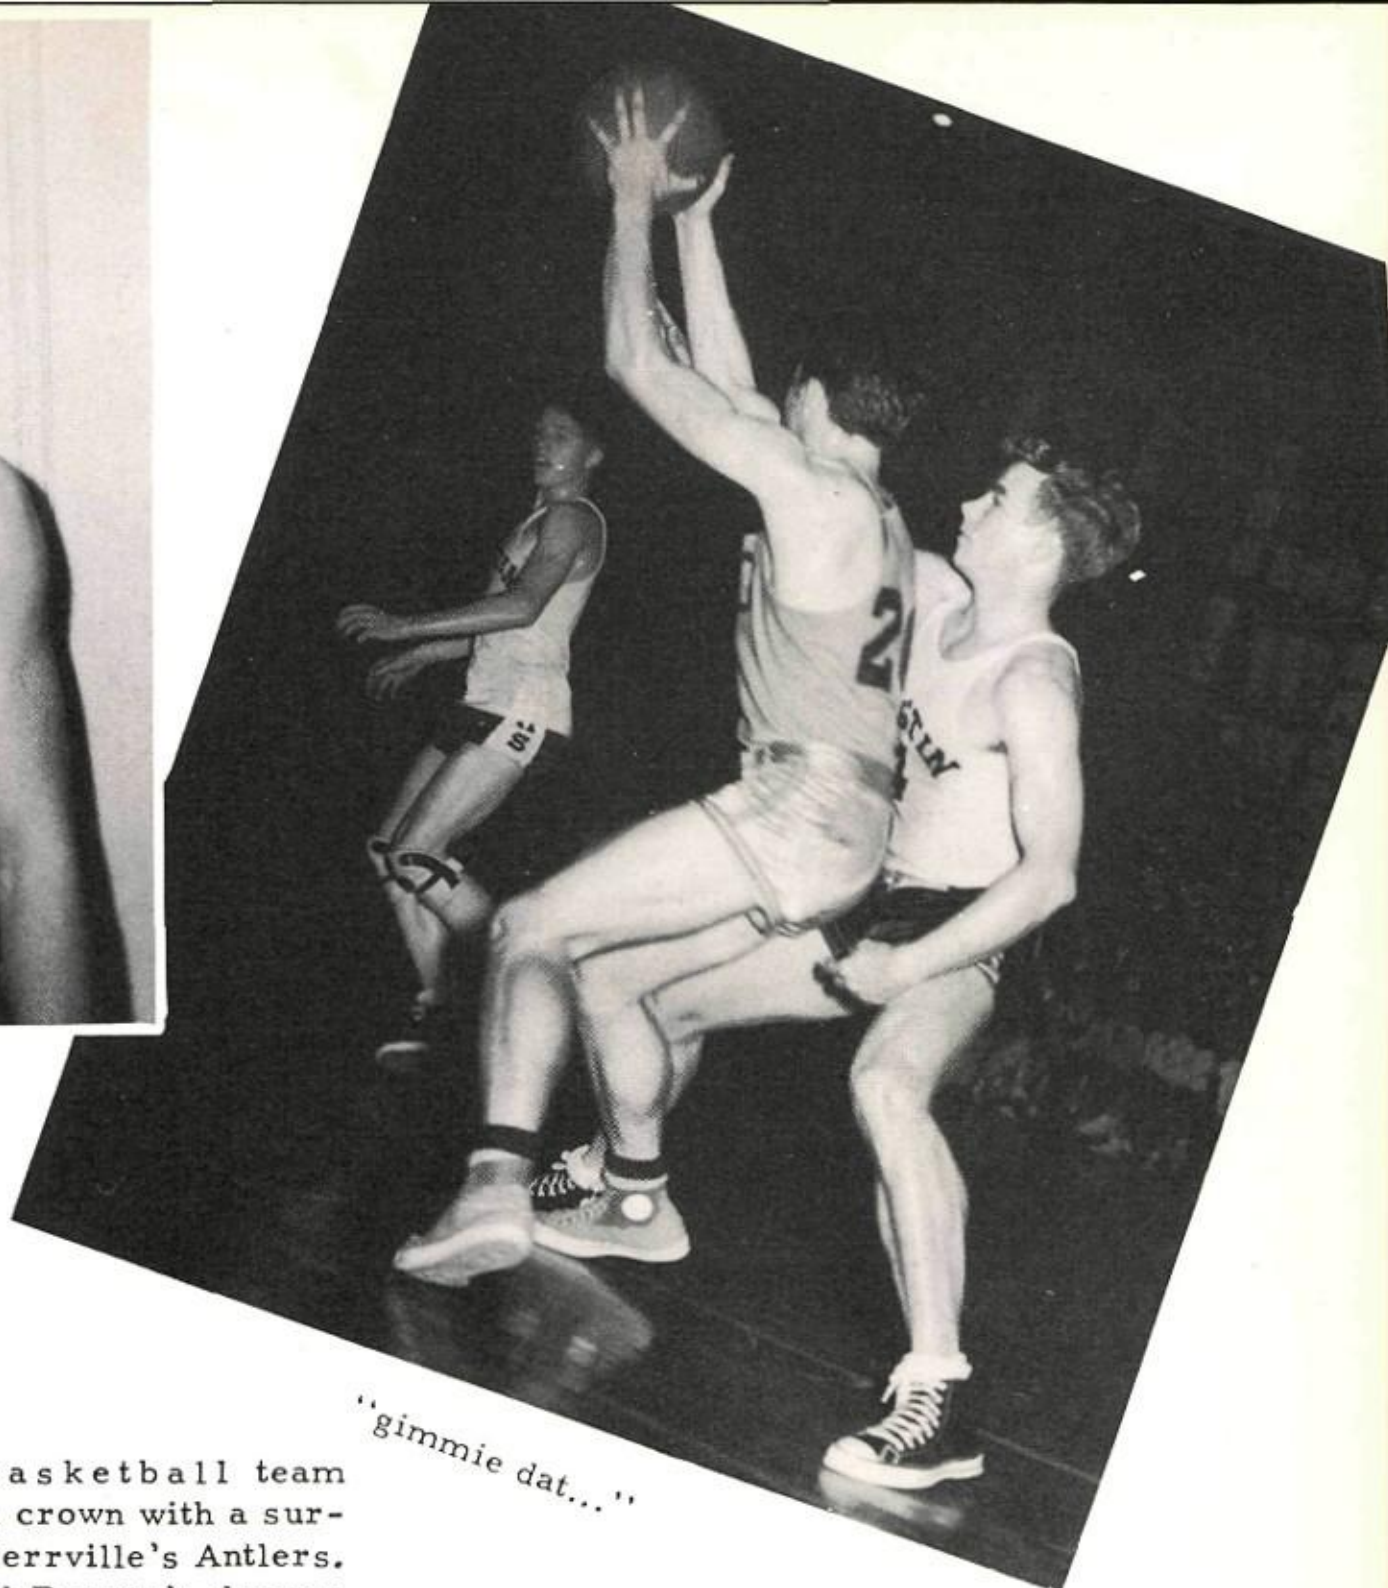

Austin got off to a mediocre start in the pre-district games against such powers as Paschal, Jeff, Brack, San Jacinto, and Lanier. The Maroons managed a 5-7 record in non-district play, but Coach Burger saw to it that Austin won its share of victories. A fighting group of green, but scrappy Maroons seemed to play better basketball, game-after-game. Fighting the favored Corpus Bucs down to the wire by forcing a 3-game playoff for the district crown, gave the state a view of the brand of ball the Austin Maroons were capable of playing...

John Caldwell, Forward

Morris Nelson, Guard

The under-rated Maroon basketball team opened defense of the district 14AA crown with a surprisingly easy 52-35 victory over Kerrville's Antlers. For the first time in the season Coach Burger's charges flashed championship form in the unexpected rout. John Caldwell captured high scoring honors with 17 points.

In the second district game Austin clearly illustrated why it would be hard to reckon with in the 14 AA cage race, with a sound 46-24 walloping of the Victoria Stingarees.

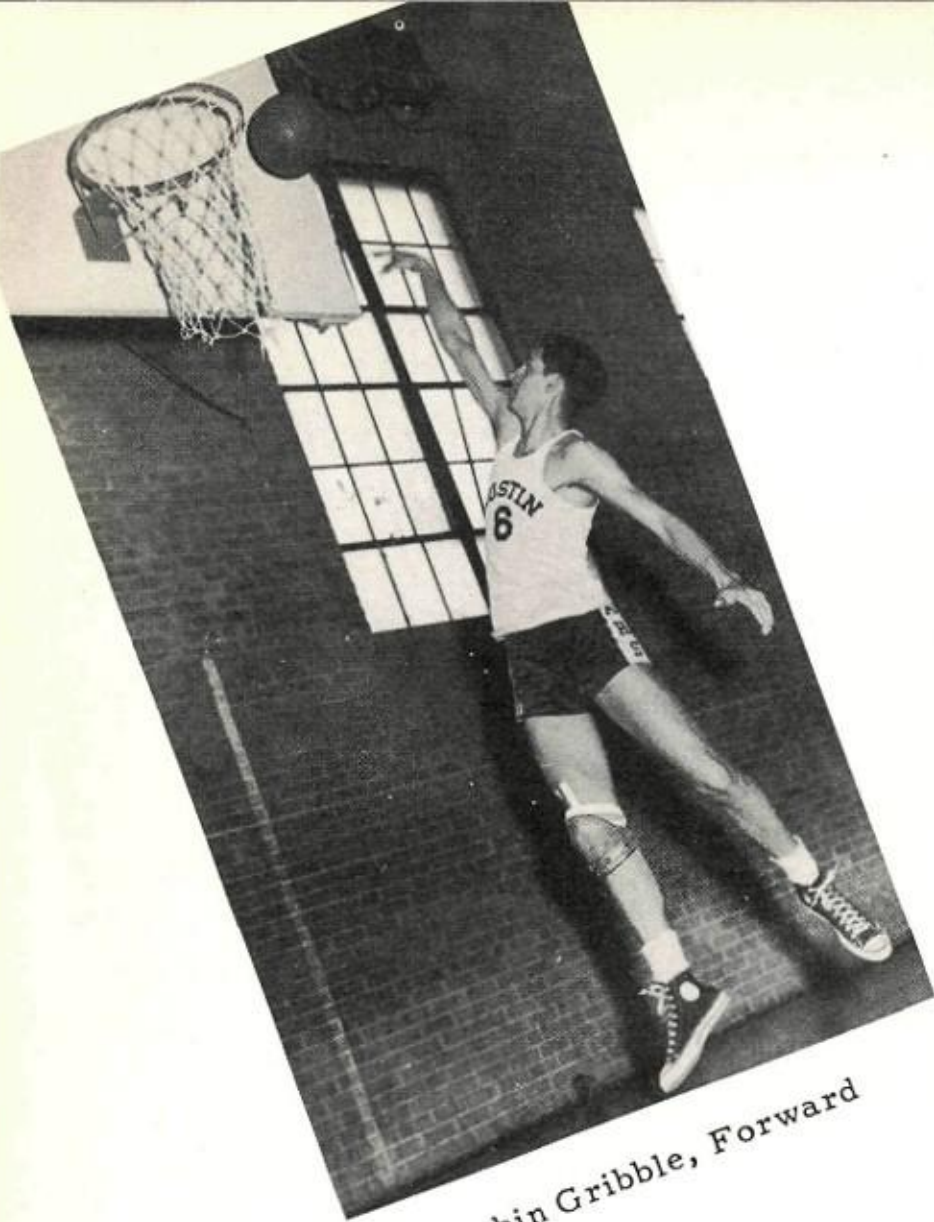

Rodney Williams, Guard

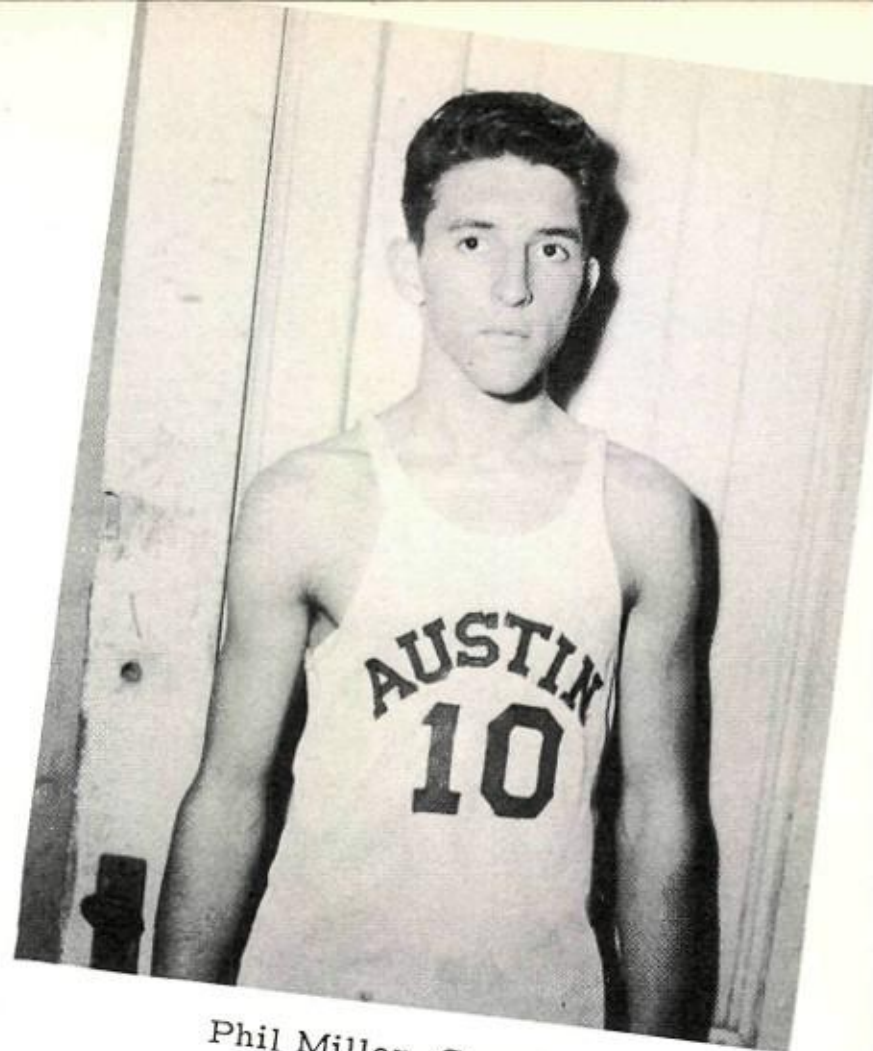

Ralph Warner, Guard

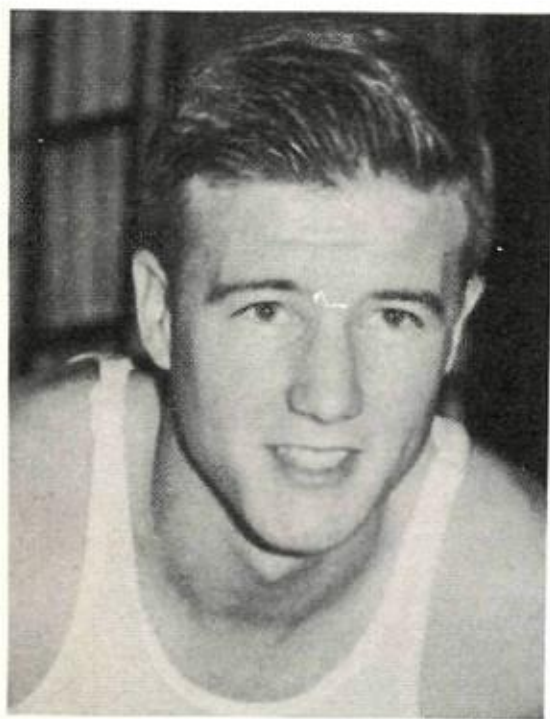

Robin Gribble, Forward

Phil Miller, Guard

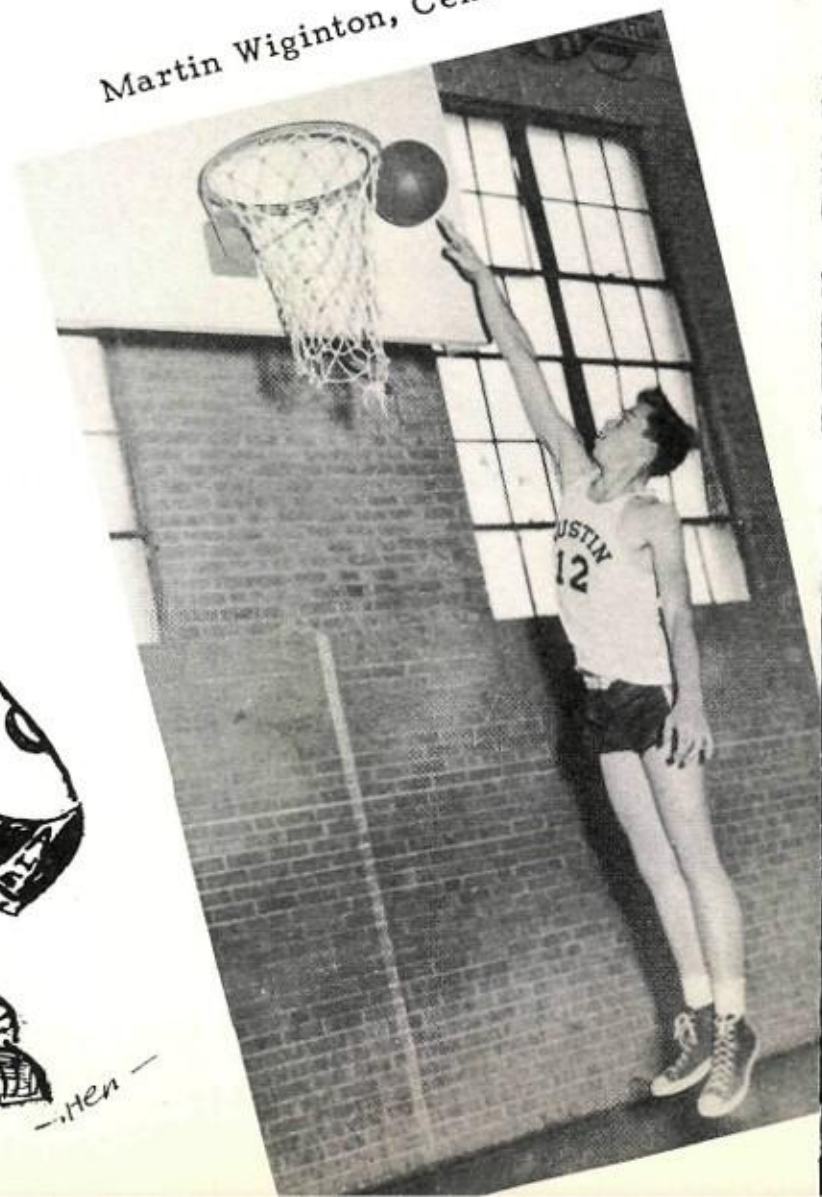

Harold Brumley, Guard

Corpus Christi's smooth operating Buccaneers momentarily stifled the Maroons' championship hopes by outpointing Austin, 51-40. The Buccos took undisputed possession of first place in the standings as Stacy Cole bucketed 14 points for Corpus.

Austin was pressed to a hectic overtime battle in the second Kerrville game before winning 46-39. The Maroons trailed most of the way, but high point man Martin Wiginton iced the game on a pair of free throws. High man for Austin was Wiginton with 15 points, as Caldwell contributed 13.

Martin Wiginton, Center

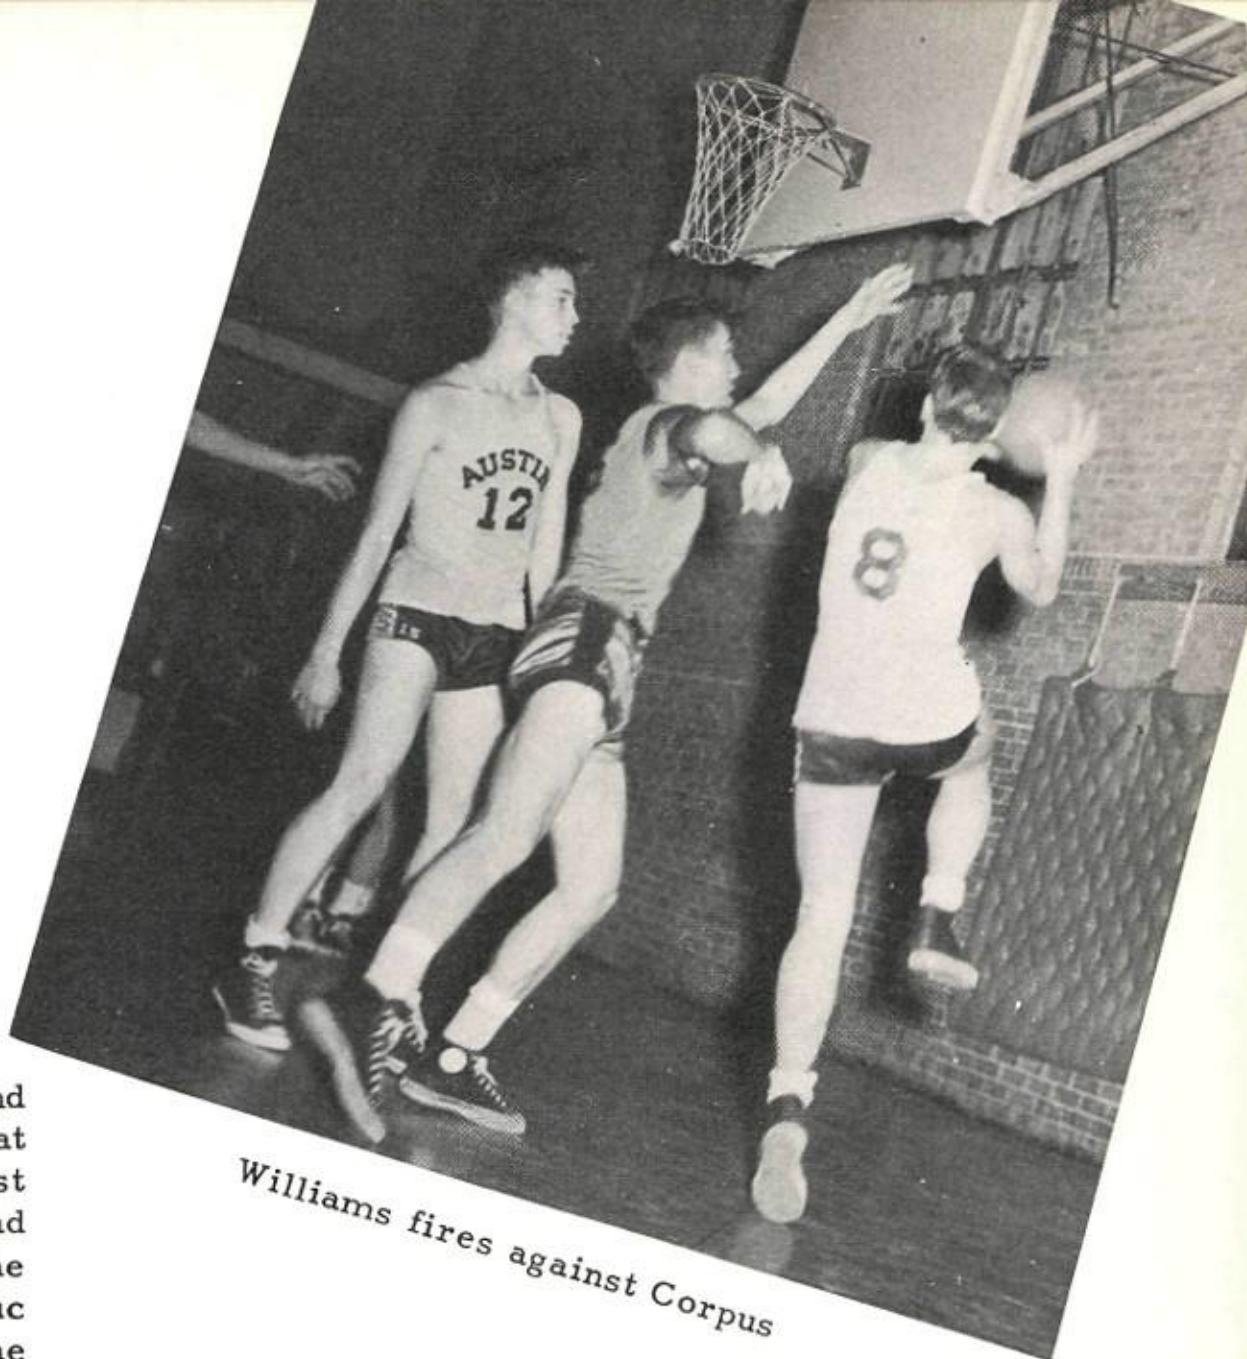

J. L. Smith, Guard

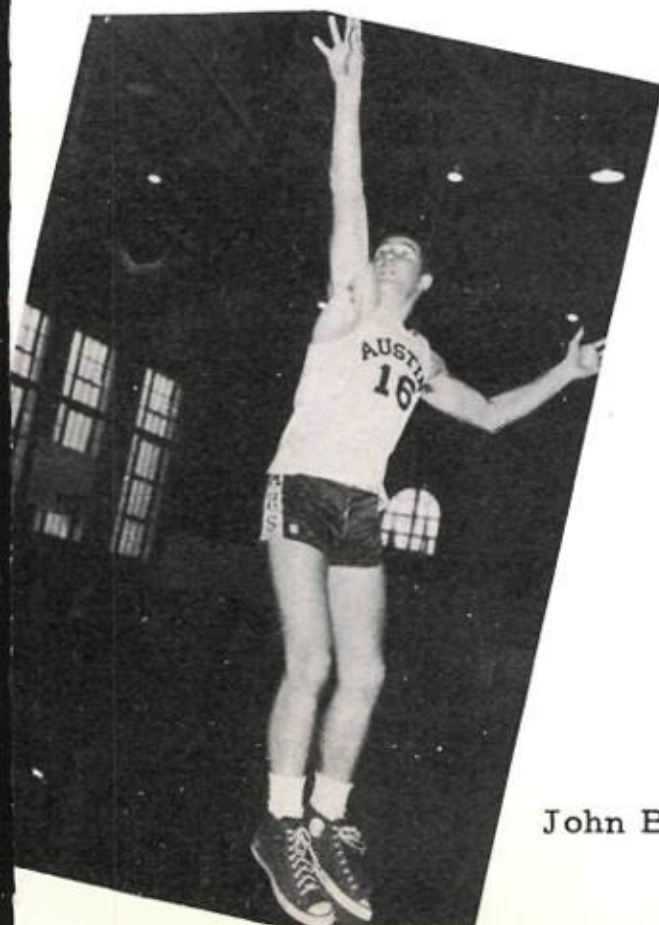

Rolling over Victoria, 45-28 in the second game with that team, the Maroons then shot at the high-riding Corpus Buccaneers. In that last game of the regular schedule the Crimsons had to do or die. And do they did, 41-38, as the Maroon-clads refused to be awed by a 25-1 Buc season record. The Austin victory evened the Corpus series and sent the district into a three game playoff for the crown. The Maroons went one-up in the first game with a storming 44-35 trouncing of the Bucs on their own court.

The Buccaneers were not to be denied, however, as they retaliated with a 39-31 trimming of the Maroons in the second playoff game. Austin had romped to a 14-6 lead at the end of the first period mainly on the marksmanship of Travis Eckert and John Caldwell. Once the Bucs got ahead they chose to freeze the ball, and the Maroons in trying to regain possession repeatedly fouled Corpus players.

A valiant band of Maroons went down in the last game of the playoff at San Antonio. The three minute rule worked in favor of the Bucs as Corpus went ahead to stay, 39-33, and to become the 1950 AA Basketball Champs.

Austin's small but hustling squad of tracksters found that they lacked the manpower to threaten Corpus Christi's romp to the state championship. Bobby Dodson, Bobby Warren and John Cavileer were the main point gatherers while the relay team made creditable showings. Injuries and illness hampered Austin's hopes early in the season when Dodson, Warren and Philip Bashara were unable to compete. In the Bluebonnet relays John Cavileer set a new broad jump record of 21 feet and 7 3/4 inches and tallied 11 points for top individual honors. Bobby Dodson loped home first in the 440-yard dash consistently.

An Austin baseball team composed entirely of American Legion Buddies, went to the state finals as Maroons. Losing only two members from the crack Legion team that came within one run of going to the LITTLE WORLD SERIES, the Maroons started with a well-balanced club.

Key men in Austin's drive to the state championship finals were Jack Brinkley on the mound and Travis Eckert at the bat.

The Maroons opened play against the Texas freshman and played a 14 game schedule, winning 11. That great baseball combination---good hitting, pitching, and fielding---shot Austin into the state tournament, as the Maroons advanced to finals. Expected to go all the way in the playoffs, the Maroons lost to the Bowie Bears (El Paso) in the Championship game, 3-2.

Playing the hotly-contested Bowie game without the services of Shortstop Charlie Leissner, Austin got only three hits. All of the Maroons' three hits came in the seventh inning as Austin tried desperately to erase a 3-0 Bowie lead. Brinkley led off with a scratch hit through shortstop.

Danny Burger followed with a walk, but cleanup man Joe Miles fanned. Eckert slashed a roller to third and an error by the third baseman scored Brinkley. Knebel brought Burger home on a single to right field. Eckert speeded for home on the throw but was cut off by three steps, leaving two out, Knebel on second with the typing run and Tate at bat.

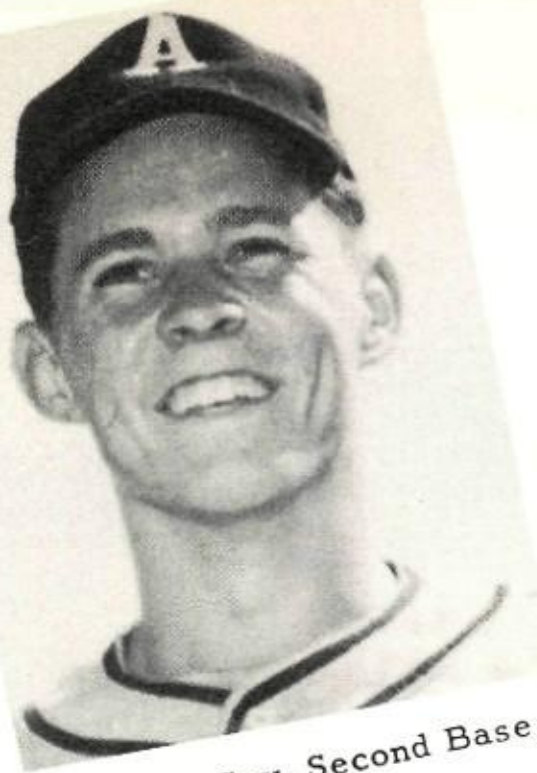

Tate went out, shortstop to first, as one of Austin High's finest baseball teams climaxed a successful season for the Maroon and White.

Many clubs and organizations had booths at the Carnival, like the candy stand of the Opera Study Club.

Squeals, yells, and the patter of little (?) feet filled the gym during the greased pig contest one of the most popular features of the Carnival.

The Frankenstein show in the basement of the gym drew many thrill-seeking students to witness the weird goings-on.

Also early in the school year came the Student Council elections, heated campaigning speeches in assembly, and suspense-filled run-offs.

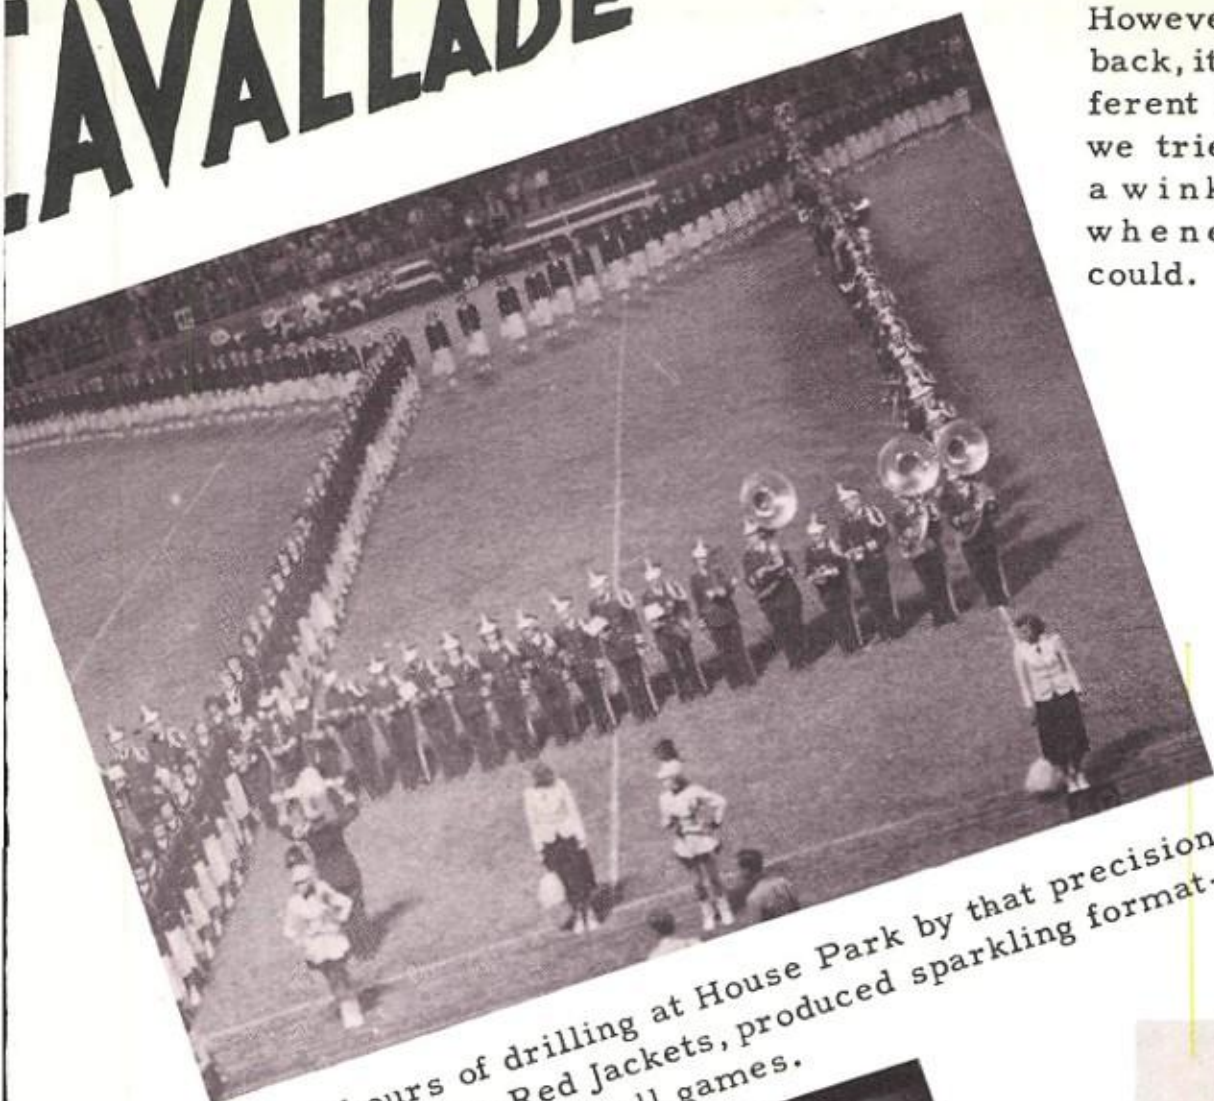

Football season held no small place in the fall's activities. Many were the exciting moments we watched with throbbing hearts as one of our boys made a dazzling run, or the team answered our cries of "Hold that line!" with a brick wall.

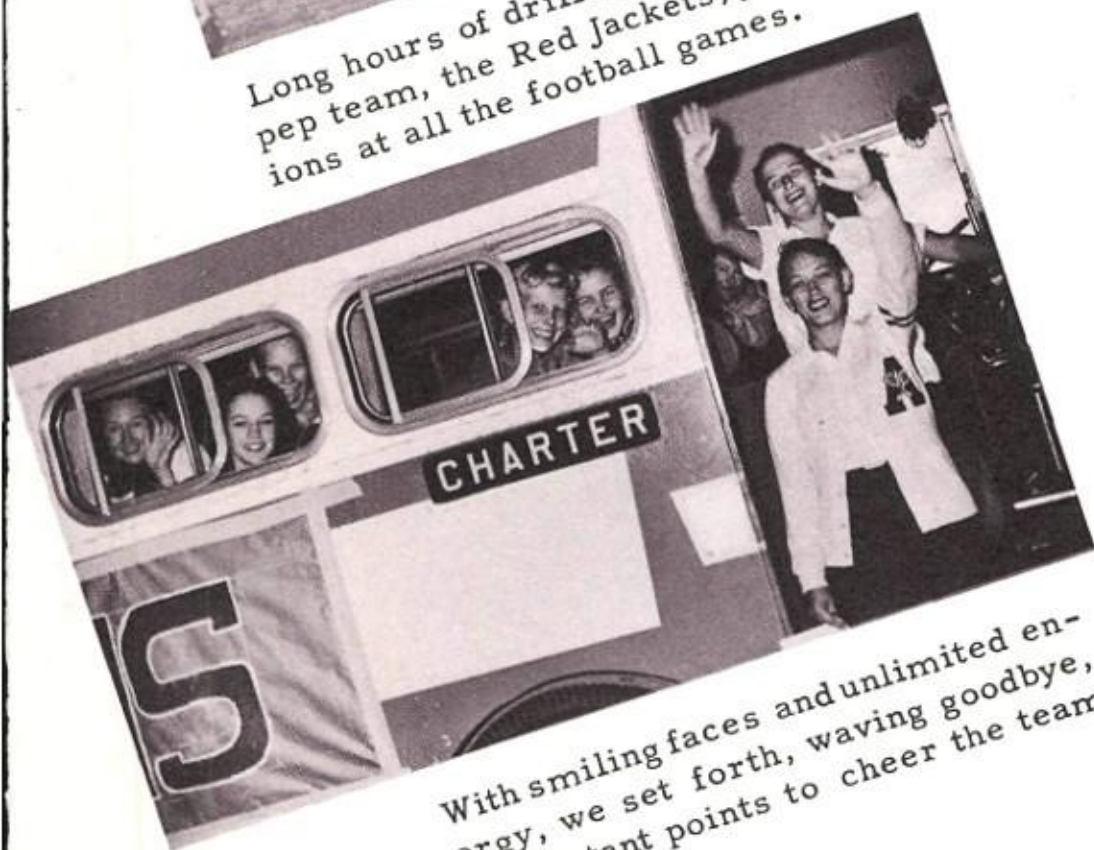

Before each out-of-town football game there were hours of preparation by leaders, who painted scores of "fight" signs.

CAVALCADE

Long hours of drilling at House Park by that precision pep team, the Red Jackets, produced sparkling formations at all the football games.

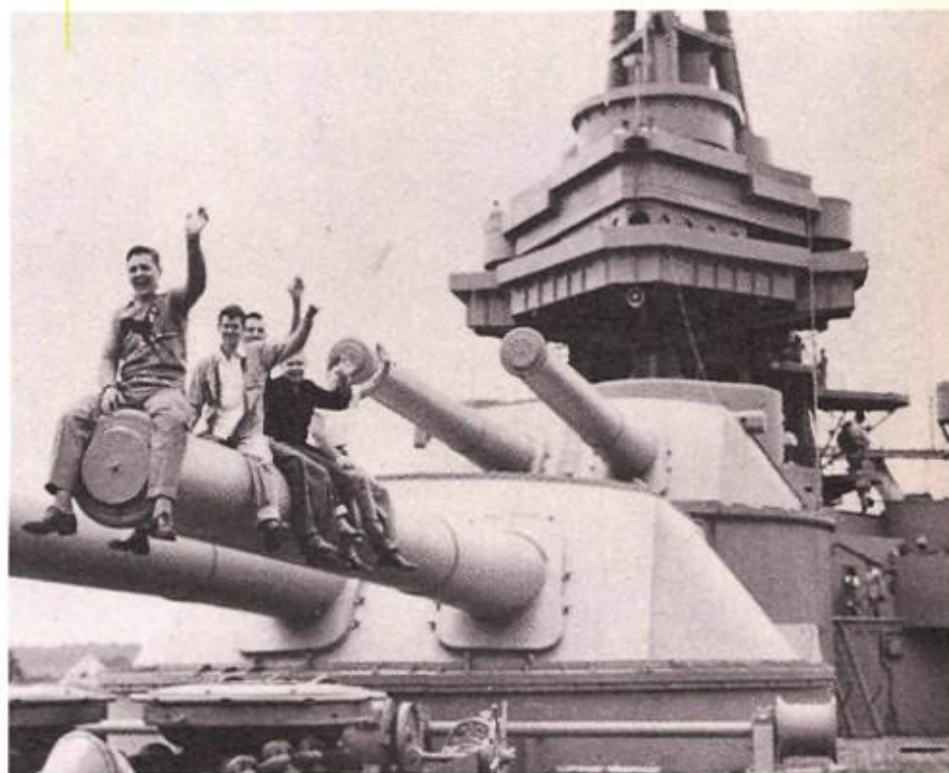

With smiling faces and unlimited energy, we set forth, waving goodbye, for distant points to cheer the team to victory.

November 18 meant Color Day at A.H.S. with almost everyone wearing some combination of maroon and white.

However, coming back, it was a different story, and we tried to catch a wink of sleep whenever we could.

On the way to Galveston, we stopped by the San Jacinto Battleground and visited the Battleship Texas.

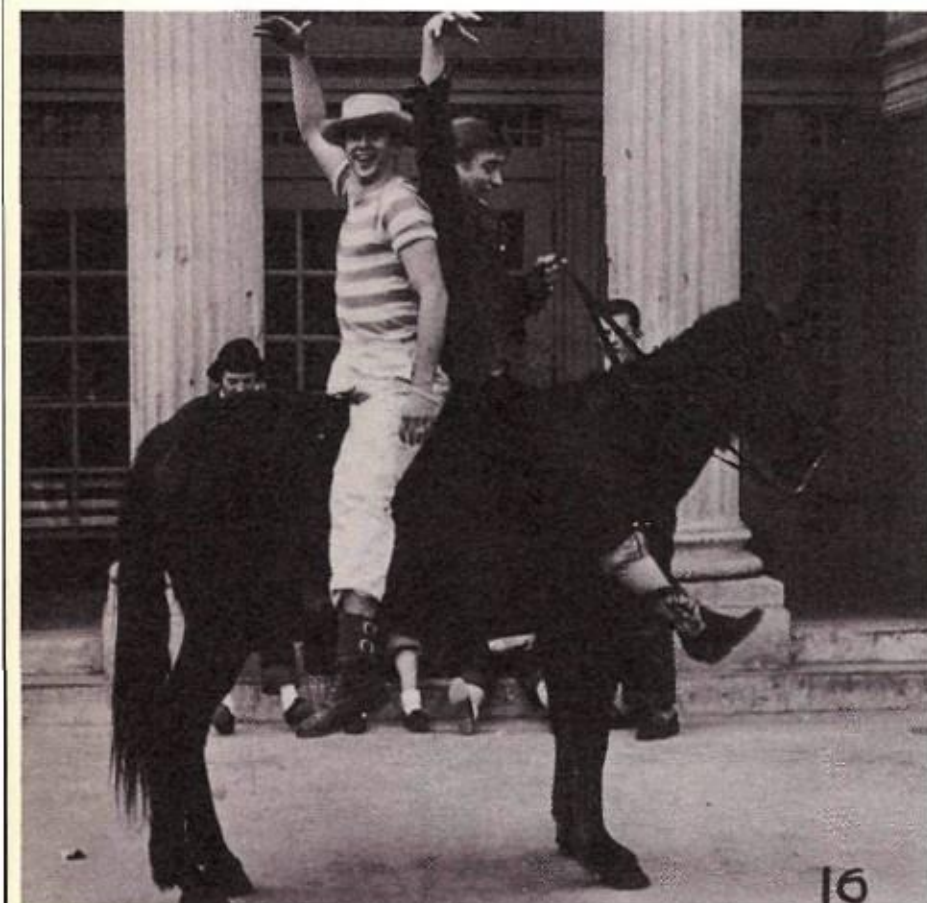

November meant deer season, too, and the call of the wild was answered by many of Austin High's sportsmen. Some were even lucky enough to bag a buck or two.

So goes the Adda Dabba Polish club.

Barbara Darnall, Stanley Poole, Ellen Sue Rotsch, Rosie Holubec, Katie Hays, Jeanette Rogers, John Byrne, Evelyn Pollard, and Herbert Parker watch as Don Pritchett points out the correct use of silverware.

The name, Adda Dabba Polish, was not really invented by a tongue-tied person. It is modern for 'add a dab of polish'. In former years this club was only open to boys, but in the fall of 1949, the membership was opened to the lucky girls.

The main purpose of this club is to teach students to use a cake fork when eating cake, and not to lick their fingers even if they would like to have that little bit of juicy fried chicken.

Basketball Club

IT'S A BASKET!
 The crowd goes wild, as the time keeper's buzz-cuts an end to another exciting Maroon victory.
 Basketball Club involves all interested boys participate. Its aims to teach a greater understanding of the rules and techniques of basketball, to teach true sportsmanship for players and spectators, to publish and keep permanent basketball records, and to help any school sponsored activity that needs help.

ABOVE: Well-like, sports-minded officers are Sgt. at arms, Bill Skipping; Reporter, Harold Brumley; Vice-President, Joe Culver; President, Riley Verdine; Secretary, Martin Wiginton; and Treasurer, Robin

Boots and Saddle

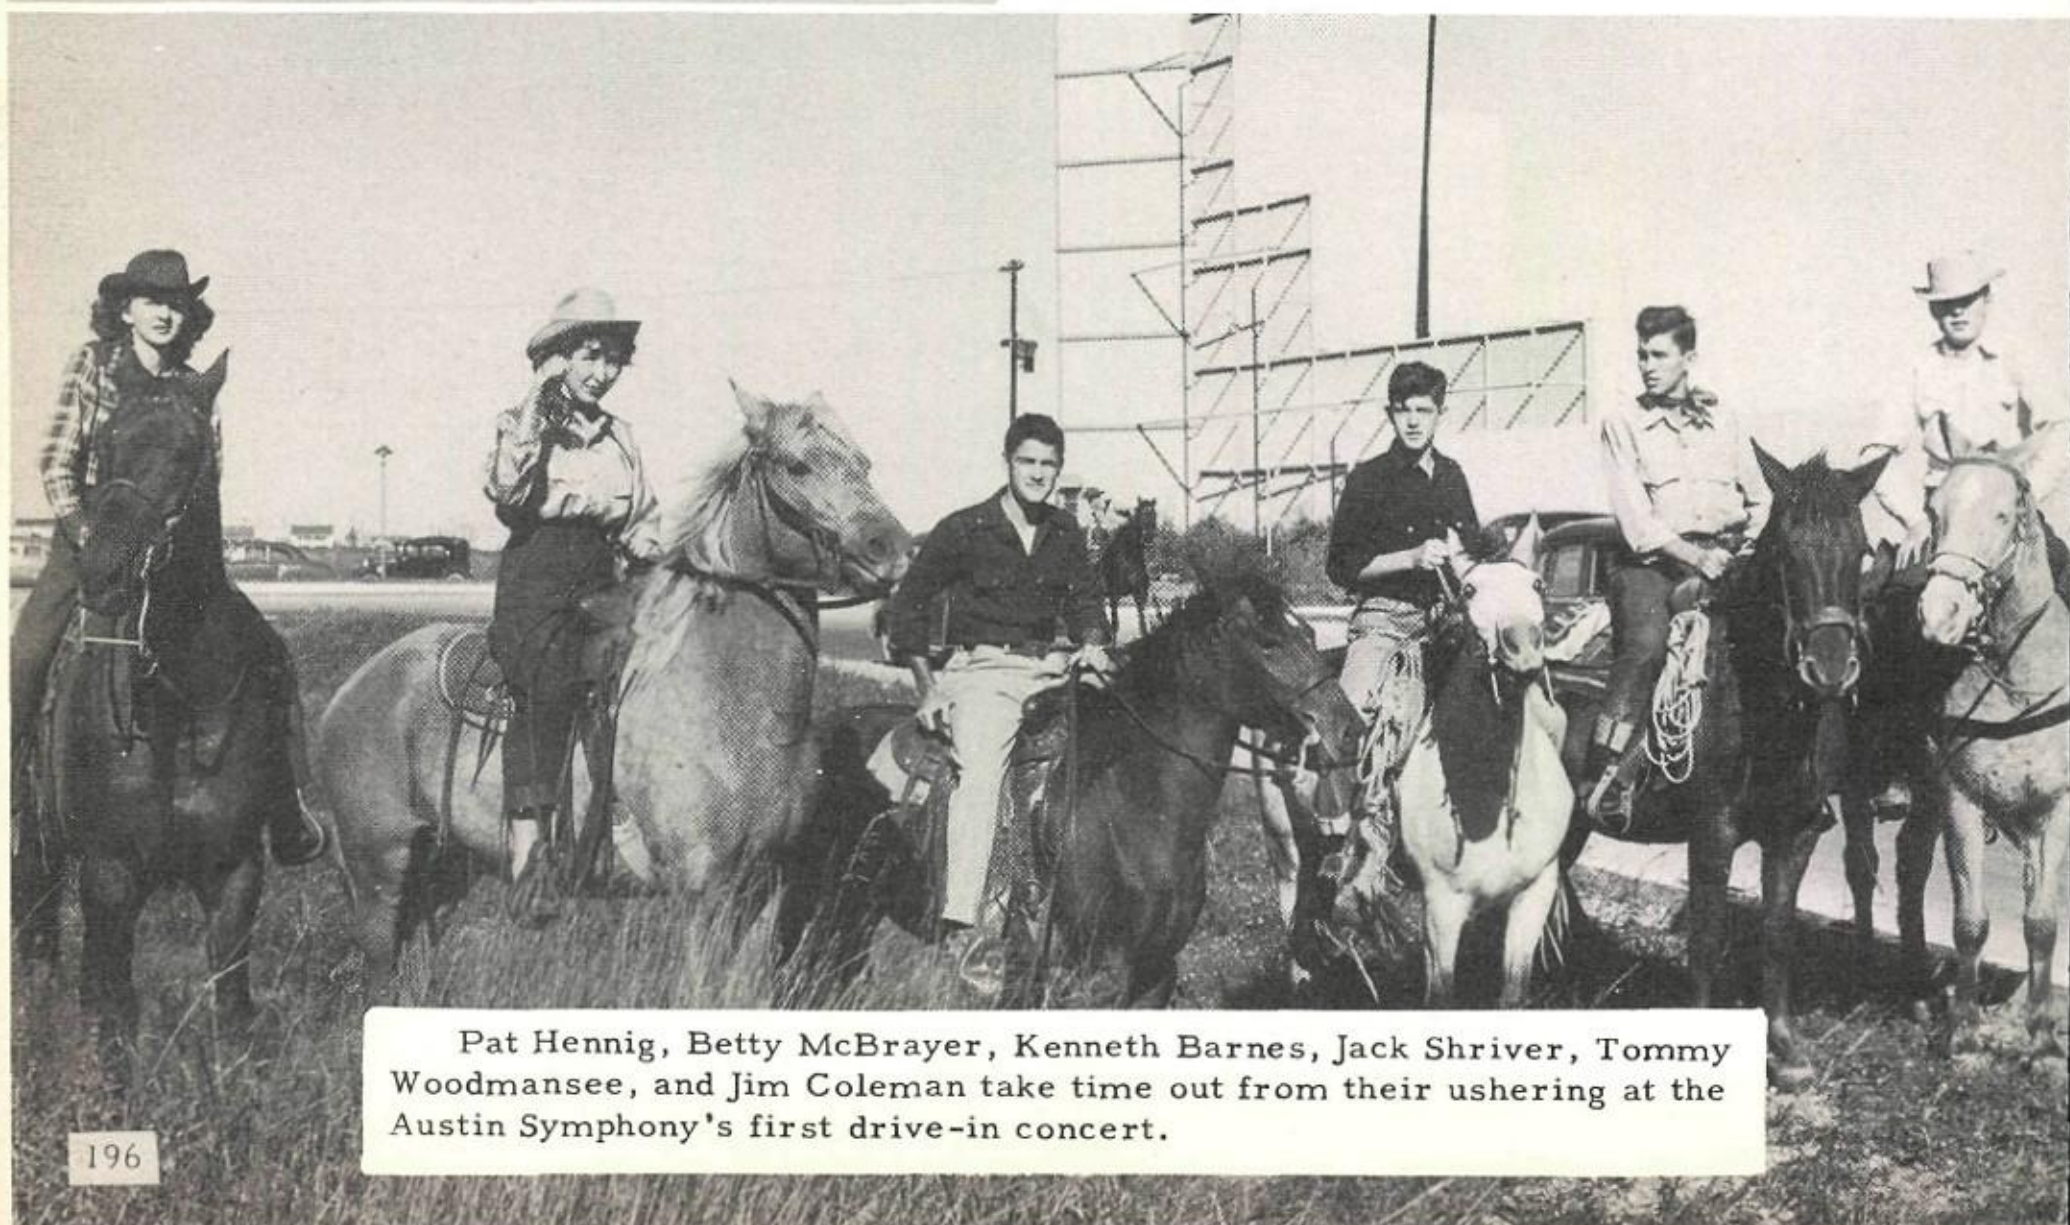

Jack Shriver, Sponsor Paul Morgan, Pat Hennig, Jack Hennig, Mr. H. T. McBrayer, Betty McBrayer, Robert Schmidt, Miss Ruth Knoepfli, Sonny Davis, Joe Perry, and Jenny Lou Stogsdill on the grassy banks of the Colorado at Betty's lake home.

The Boots and Saddle Club, a popular organization with the horse-lovers of Austin High, was started to promote Western riding.

During meetings they have interesting discussions on riding, horses, etc. and sometimes guest speakers from riding clubs at the University of Texas give informal talks.

Meanwhile, the Boots and Saddle Club goes 'clippity-cloppin' along.

Pat Hennig, Betty McBrayer, Kenneth Barnes, Jack Shriver, Tommy Woodmansee, and Jim Coleman take time out from their ushering at the Austin Symphony's first drive-in concert.

Bridge Club

While they learn, the members of the Bridge Club thoroughly enjoy themselves with this entertaining and pleasant pastime.

Their main aim is to play a social game of cards without getting a black eye.

SEATED: Jane Kraemer, Fall and Spring President; Doris Johnson, Fall Vice-President; and Spring Treasurer.
STANDING: Card-shark Carla Jo Cocke, Spring Vice-President; Mrs. Willard Nitschke, Sponsor; and Nancy Ritter, Spring Secretary. For excellent advice on bridge rely on these A.H.S. experts.

Canasta Club

Mrs. Erlene Williams has really had her hands full ever since the beginning of the Canasta Club.

The membership for the first semester was forty-eight interested participants, but by the time the roll was taken for the second semester, the membership had exactly doubled itself.

ABOVE:
John Lockman, Judy Meisler, Erne Mulholland, Lily Bess Rogers, and Ha Roberts engage in a stimulating game of ...guess what? CANASTA! Club Sponsor Mrs. Erlene Williams looks on.

Chit-Chat Club

SOCIAL! That's the name for the Chit-Chat Club. While the members do their crocheting, embroidering, and other forms of sewing, they chatter and look forward to parties, dances, and other entertaining affairs, such as the deluxe banquet they had in January at Old Seville, and the other fun-packed parties they had during the year.

Receiving instructions from Mrs. Castleberry are Betty McClain, Rachel Rincon, Laura Ann Lentz, and Bernadine Johnson.

Debate and Public Discussion

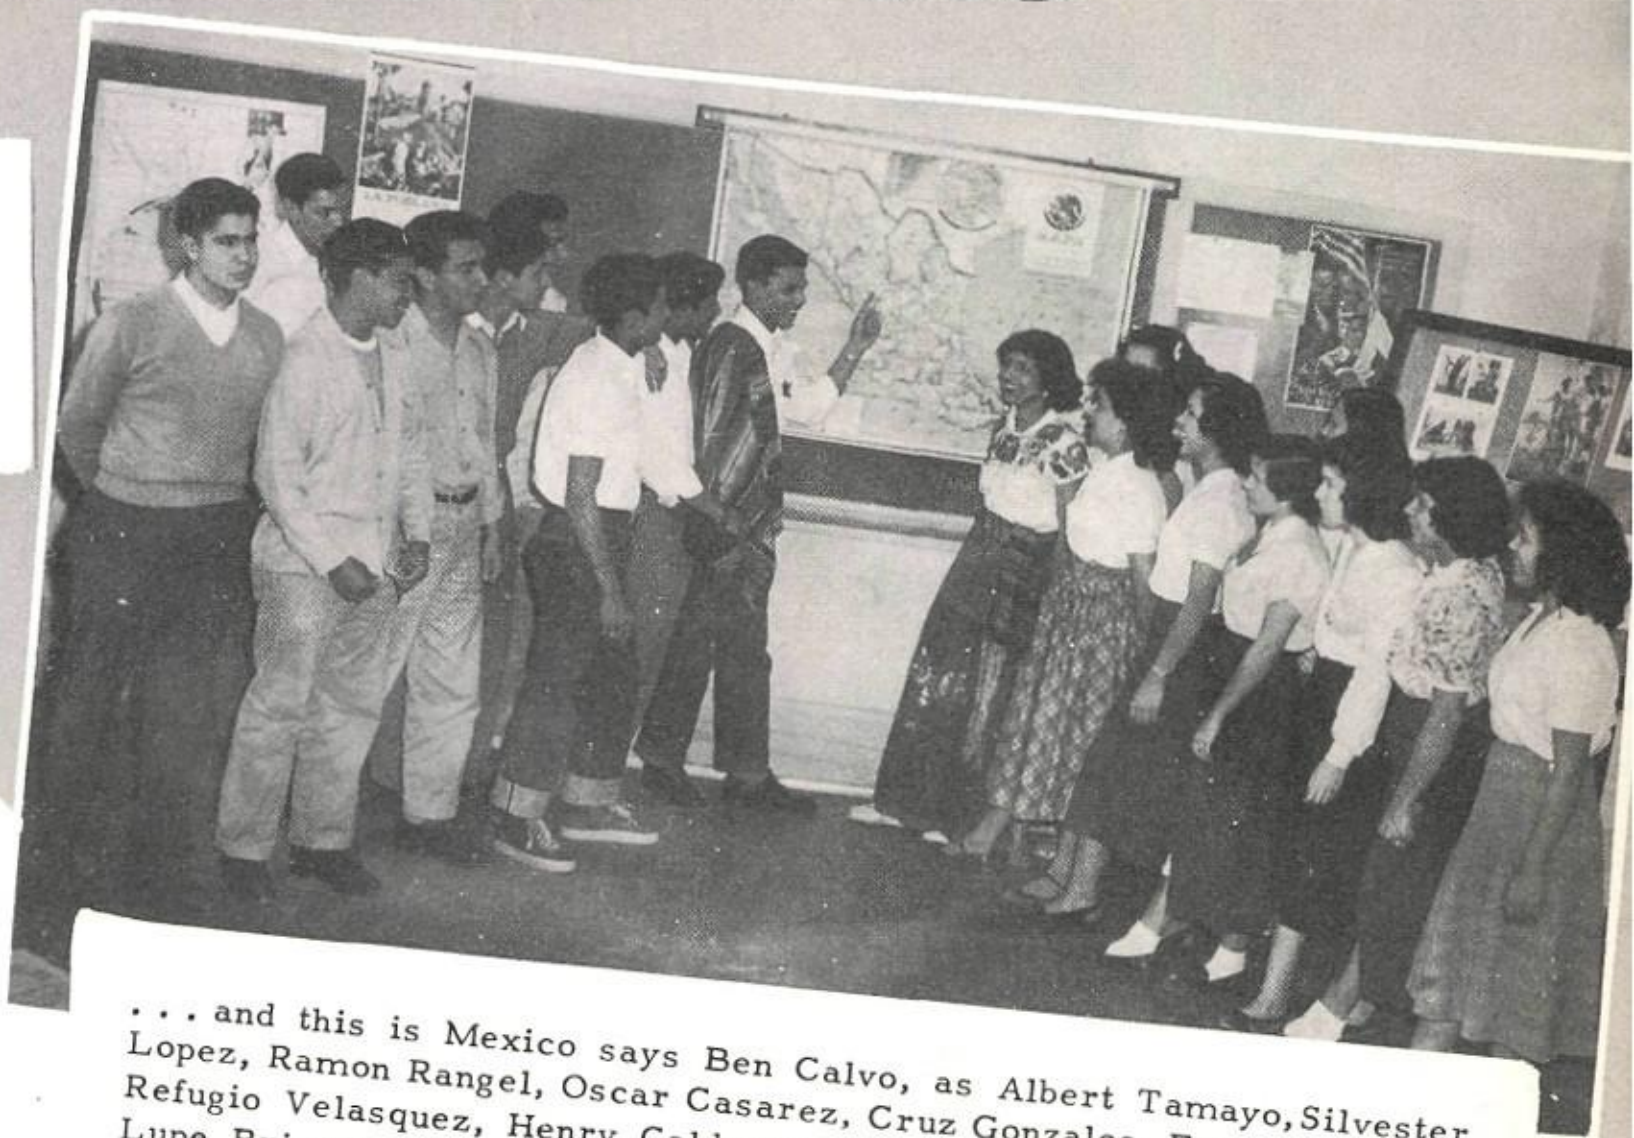

BELOW: Jack Hubby, David Appling, Dolph Simon, Bill Wright, Wiley Mangum, Horacio Gonzales, Phin Washer, Robert Akin, J. Ray Reagor, Don Hammil, Peggy Huddleston, Lucile Sims, and Ed Rightor receive vital hints from Coach Guy Bizzel.

El Arco Iris

Singing and dancing in the fashion of Old Mexico is the aim of El Arco Iris. The fun of learning romantic languages is hard to top far as this interesting group is concerned.

... and this is Mexico says Ben Calvo, as Albert Tamayo, Silvester Lopez, Ramon Rangel, Oscar Casarez, Cruz Gonzales, Emilio Villegas, Refugio Velasquez, Henry Calderon, Mary Calderon, Susie Ramirez, Lupe Briseno, Carmen Jaime, Annie Ruth Torres, Eva Garcia, Alice Olvera, Gloria Guerra, and Annie Herrera look on.

FIRST ROW: Manuel Casarez, Cruz Gonzales, Elma Duran, Gertrude Garza, Christine Moya, Joe Garcia, Henry Calderon.

SECOND ROW: Miss Porter, Mary Jane Galarza, Andrea Galarza, Aurora Rodriguez, Refugio Velasquez, Gloria Sifuentes, Paul Gil, and Oscar Casarez.

Southern Harmony

Although the Southern Harmony Club was organized only this year, it has already made a name for itself in school activities by winning second place in the annual Valentine Coronation and displaying the Confederate flag at Maroon football games.

But above everything else, the true sons of the South are most proud of their sponsors General Robert E. Lee and Miss Lucille Dickard. But enough of this - ON TO VICKSBURG!

French Club

In the midst of a riotous initiation Ann Hart pins a pledge ribbon on a new happy member of the French Club.

When someone speaks of roast goose and crepe suzettes, you immediately think of an exclusive French restaurant, but these foods are served at the French Club's Christmas dinner. This gala occasion is only one of the many festivities sponsored by the French Club. Other special activities include the initiation picnic in the fall, the Fete de Charlemagne banquet, and the spring picnic.

SECOND ROW: Vonnie Tucker, Rosie Swans, Bobby Davis, Robert Overall, David Shriver, Jack Hennig, John Byrnes, Troy Bennett, Kenneth Cargyle, Gene Caldwell, C. B. Easton, and Ernest Lawrence.

THIRD ROW: Jimmy Coleman, Russel McMurray, Henry Schmidt, Joe Seiders, Bobby Dye, Herman Lind, Erwin Kemp, William Kemp, Adolph Burrell, Gene Darter, Carroll Caldwell, and John Schoedel.

FOURTH ROW: Johnny Lane, Martin Wiginton, Angel Navarro, Carl Rundberg, J. E. Izzard, Leroy Paul, Billy Saxon, Jimmy Cummings, Alden Traugatt, Bobby Wilson, and Billy Lambert.

Poultry winners for 1950 are Dick Scott, Eugene Darter, Adolph Burrel.

Livestock winners for 1950 are Jimmie Starnater, Alden Traugatt, and Martin Wiginton.

Future Farmers...the planters, growers, and harvesters...they will nourish a nation...America needs more of them...more of the boys that will become the men who furrow the fields and feed the stock...watering, weeding, working the earth that so well repays their effort...these are the Future Farmers of America!

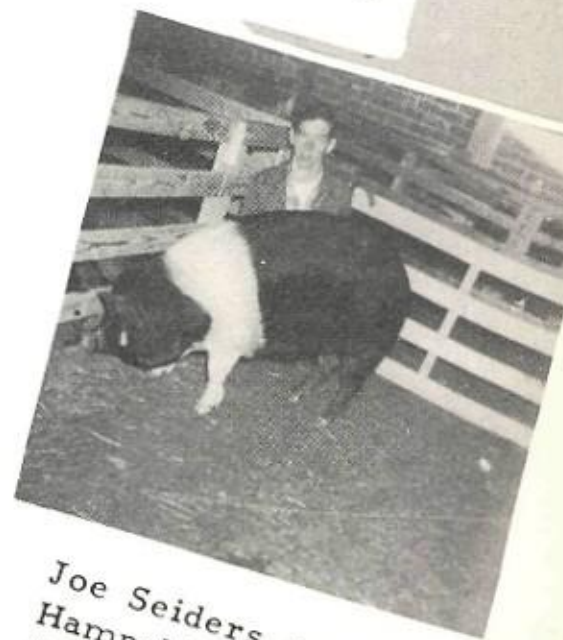

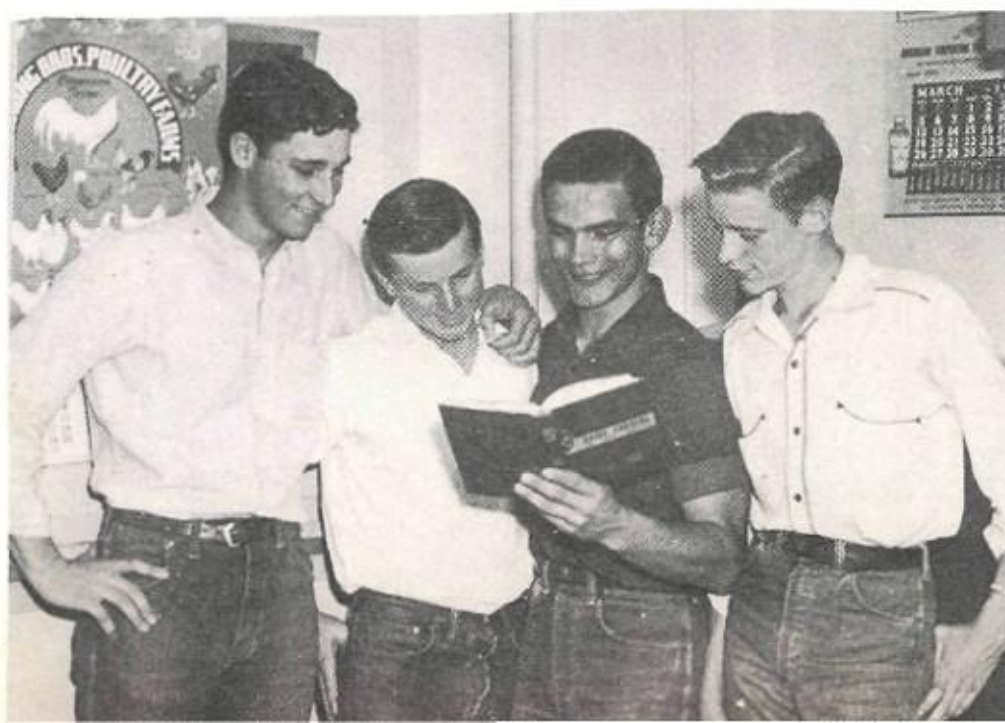

James Stone and his first prize lamb.

Dairy winners for 1950 are Rowe Caldwell, James Stone, John Byrne, and Henry Schmidt.

John Byrne, Jr. and his Jerseys. Prize winners at Austin and San Antonio.

Joe Seiders and his Hampshire farrow at the San Antonio show.

Future

"TOWARD NEW HORIZONS, our motto . . . working together for a happier homelife for everyone . . . gaining practical, though sometimes painful experience in cooking and sewing labs . . . preparing for the greatest career of all . . . that of homemaker.

The sunny cottage . . . scene of many an arduous trial and tribulation while we learned the whys and wherefores of the homemaking profession . . . Laughing at our feeble attempts . . . smiling over jubilant victories . . .

Homemakers of America

Worthwhile projects . . . adopting a school of children in war-torn Europe . . . selling candy to support some worthy cause . . . successful style shows . . . Learning to live better today so that our lives and those of our families might be better tomorrow . . . Symbol of Democracy, the F.H.A. . . . So now we are full-fledged homemakers . . . looking ahead to "NEW HORIZONS."

Patience and perseverance are outstanding traits of these homemakers of the future. FIRST ROW: Joan Naven, Socorrita Teneyuque, Jane Morrison, Alberta Fishbeck. SECOND ROW: Miss Commandu, Mrs. Smith, Sponsor; Ruby Nell Youngblood, Ruby Kieke, Cynthia Moreno, Flora Ramirez, Olga Lopez, Evangeline Castillo, Sue Finley, Jo Alla Medford, Johnye Wilson. THIRD ROW: Lois Colley, Audrey Phillips.

F. H. A.

Gossiping gaily over afternoon tea are Betty Hickman, Norma Pinkerton, Pe Jo Smith, Ola Mae Fogle, Nola Burt, Peggy Hendricks, Janis Walker, Melvin Cra Bobby Leonard, Jane Strong, Alice Jean Nichols, Virginia Morris, and Helen Ca bell.

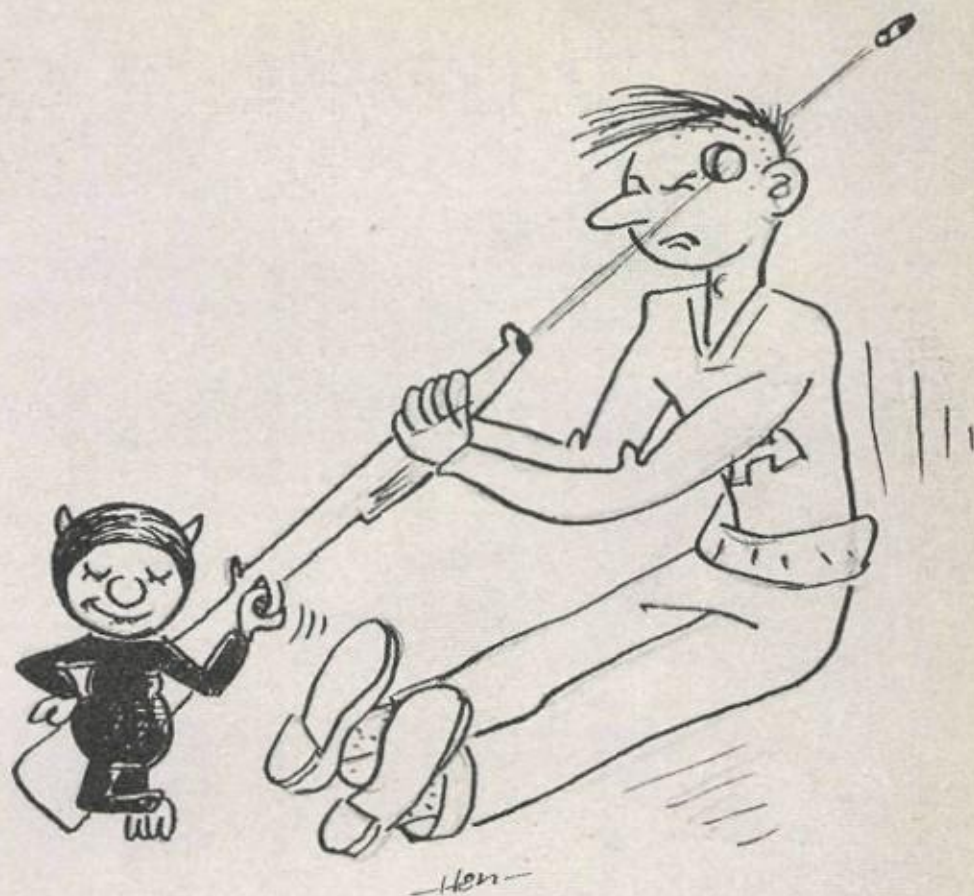

Gathering for a gab session and informative report from Janette Todd are:

Rod and Gun

The Rod and Gun Club was organized this year to bring about a better understanding of hunting and angling.

These ambitious boys banded for the purpose of firmly establishing a close relationship between the sportsmen of Austin High.

 THIRD ROW: Sidney Wilson, Don Willhoite, Herman Lind, Doyle Davis, Jimmie Shelton, Jimmie Screws, Peter Kuttner.

Handicraft Club

Many were the useful gadgets that were made under the guiding eye of Pop Horton. Gay and lively chatter danced lightly as fingers flew over shining copper tray designs. Tricky plastic salt and pepper shaker sets were high on the list of favorites, as were the big, wide leather belts.

But, F19 wasn't a room just for fun--lots of useful things were made, too.

Elaine Anderson, center, demonstrates lacing for Betty Olson, Joyce Butler, (second row) Patsy Everts, Joyce Elaine Neff, and Margaret Carpenter.

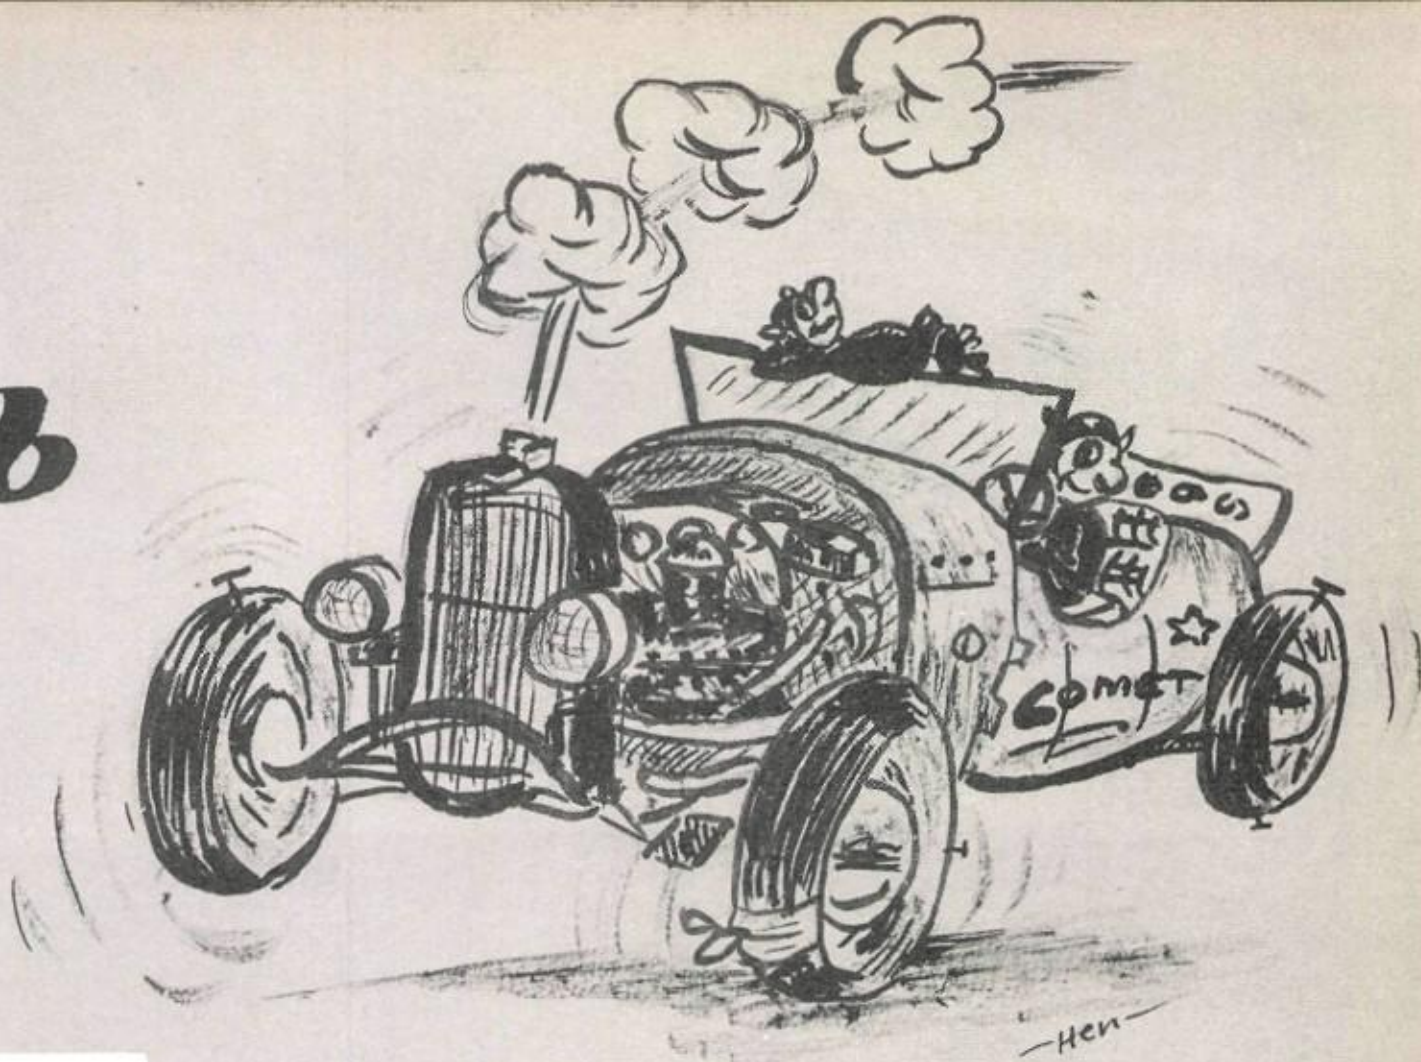

Working industriously are Sara Rundell, Carol Krueger, Lenarose Macry, Billie Faye Smith, Latrell Lee, Marilyn Biel, Jean McCord, Jo Ann Simpson, Jo Ann Lawlor.

Learning the tricks of the trade are Laquita Fawner, Jean Gilman, Nell Butler, Betty Elkin, Geneva Williams, Joyce Norvell, Frances Lee Fox, Gayle Schrader, Martha Fuhrman, Delois Fuchs, Doris Green, and Ethel Ferstl.

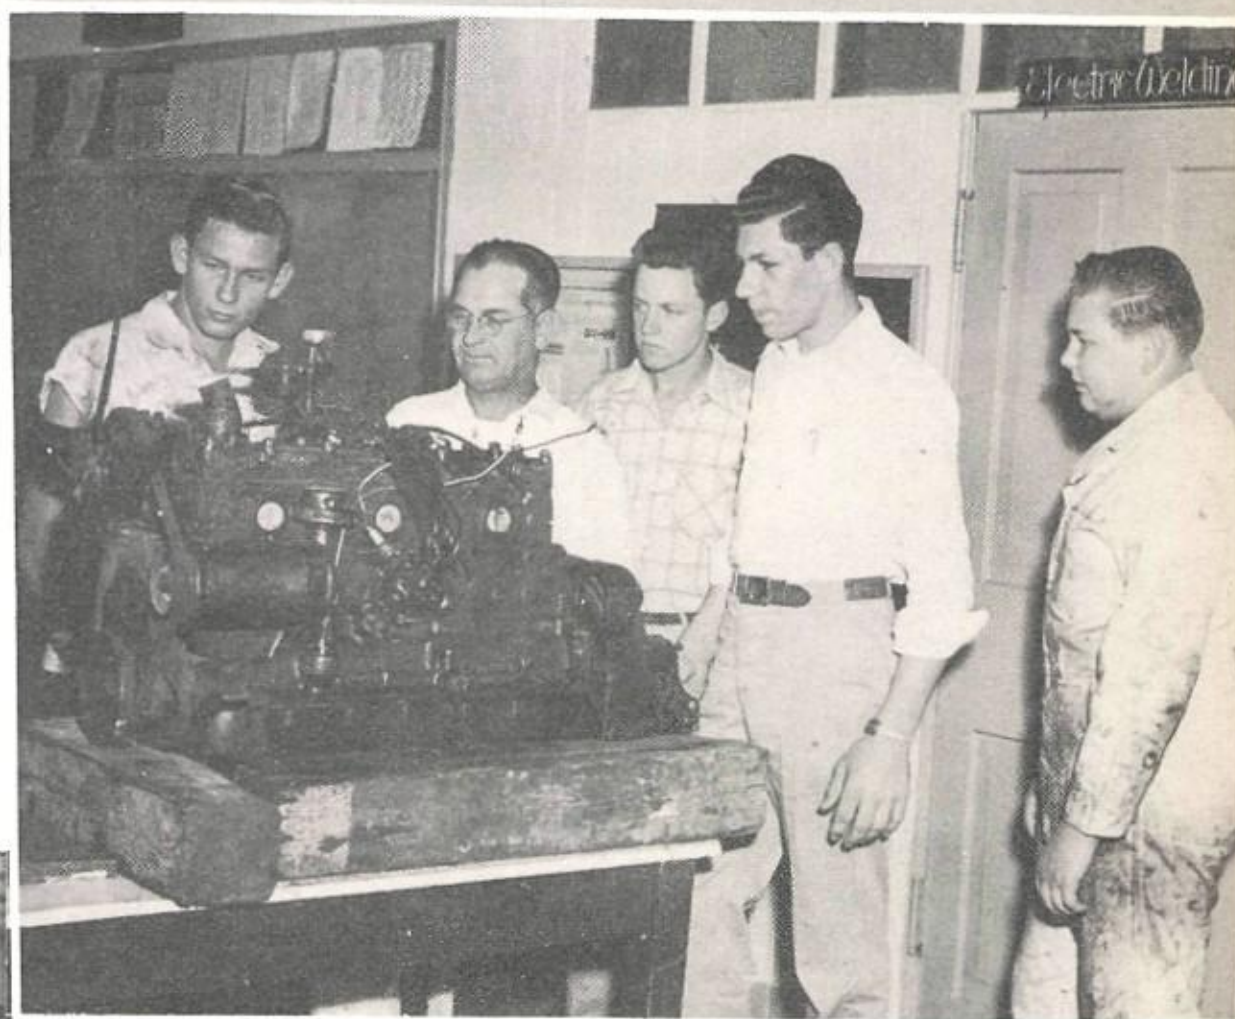

Hot Rod Club

This unique group is composed of boys who are interested in the mechanics of that popular machine, the hot rod. For the uninitiated, a hot rod is an old car which has been "stripped down" and "souped up" to the point where it can attain terrific speeds. Although these boys do like their cars to be able to "fly low," they believe speed has its place, and one should practice careful driving at all times.

In deep meditation over a motor are Lambert Raatz, Mr. Starnater, William Kemp, August Hartkopf, and John Schmidt.

David Kastner, Jamie Hiesler, Neil Cummings, Dean Williamson, John Schmidt, and Bill Duncan climb aboard a vehicle.

K.D.V.

Members of the K.D.V. German Club have the distinction of belonging to one of the oldest clubs in A.H.S. The K.D.V. Club was organized in 1924 by Miss Else Trenckmann, the present sponsor.

Their aims are to become further acquainted with the language, customs, and culture of the German people. The colors of this club are black, red, and gold. The K.D.V. flower is the cornflower.

By the way, in case you are wondering what K.D.V. stands for, here it is ---- KONSTANTINOPOLITANISCHERDUDELSACKSPFEIFENMACHERSUNTERSTUT- AUNGSVEREIN.

FIRST ROW: John Mugno, Neil Singleton, Alfred Becker, Donald Becker, Theo Becker.

SECOND ROW: Nelwyn Nett, Margie Kriegel, Charles Bergstrom, Delbert Becker, and Melrose Knebel.

Latin Club

The Latin Club is devoted to the teaching of Rome and its customs. Each spring this club sponsors a gala Latin Week which includes an assembly and a banquet.

You want to know who Kilikrates was. . .but you are still bewildered by the library's supply of paraphernalia. . .so what is to be your alternative? Why not join the Library Club and learn to find your way around several hundred books with the ease of a real librarian. Discussions of outstanding novels and contemporary authors pep up the meetings.

"So this is who Kilikrates was!" exclaims Bobby Johns as he and Edward McKinnon, Lamar Ealy, Jackie Thomas, Gene Hawkins, Herbie Fischer, Mrs. Massie, and J. L. Jackson, browse through some new arrivals.

Library Club

Loren Smith, Dorothy Horton, Barbara Smith, Le Frances Crow, and Da James look on as Olive Crane and Bill Sauls check out the latest in adventure stories.

Los Amigos En Las Americas

When the annual Pan American Student Forum convention was held in Austin during April 29-30, the Los Amigos Chapter was there with full banners flying, ready to carry away all the prizes. The club has acquired a very commendable reputation with the other PASF chapters. The club was organized to promote Pan American friendship.

Joe Guerrero, Delores Einkamp, Eloise McGuire, Jose Marie Graham, Karel Addek, Mary Ann Leisering, Tony Villesano, Barbara House, Ruth Lita Gomez, Shirley Cartwright, Beverly Smith, Vera Geoffry, Carlen Ledesma, Albert Rangel sing one of their favorite Spanish songs.

As Albert Rangel and Irma Saldivar keep time to typical Latin American music, Ellie Manuel, Flora Ramirez, Bunny Smith, Lupe Ledesma, Laurie Stone, Tony Villesano, Alice Gardiner, Carlene Wright, Rena Brown, Meg Youngquist, Ophelia Rangel, and Joe Guerrero look on.

Miss Decherd, an oldhand at such goings-on, instructs Frances Smith, Marlene Duce, Ruth Bethke, Roma Johnson, Bonnie Kaiser, Betty Ebner, Jerry Johnson, and Betty Rogers in the art of conducting.

Musicians

"One, two, three, four. . . One, two, three, four. . ."
This is the chant all aspiring conductors practice as they try to keep the other members of the Musicians Club singing together. While learning the fundamentals of conducting, the budding musicians also enjoy an informal singing session.

Roma Johnson, Treasurer, Elaine Smith, Pianist, Jerry Johnson, President, and Lucy Speaker, Secretary get together for a little harmonizing around the Steinway in the Rock House.

Opera Study Club

Paul Grieder croons to Martha Harrison as "the Devil", Joe Harris, and "the Angels", Jane Taylor, Patty Gideon, and Pat Epright look upon the touching scene.

Have you ever wondered what the stories behind the operas are? Just ask a member of the Opera Study Club and we'll bet you'll be surprised at the fascinating answer they might give you.

The Opera Study Club was organized in order to give students an opportunity to learn about the many wonderful operas, to learn of their composers, and mainly, to appreciate the opera as an enjoyable cultural art.

Popular Card Games

"Oh boy! A natural canasta!" Sounds like these emerge every Friday during club period from A21. Besides canasta, the members play bridge, old maid, and many other card games which they enjoy. When asked the main purpose of their club, they replied, "Why, just for fun, of course!"

Forming a diamond are:
FIRST ROW: Barbara Burr.
SECOND ROW: Mary Moore, Beebe Bailey, Claire Caswell, Marilyn Lyles.
THIRD ROW: Suzanne Ashford, Georgeanne Allen, Ann Benbow, Margaret Faust, and Jo Anne Burkhalter.
FOURTH ROW: Frances Struhall.

Pausing from their stimulating games are Marilyn Biel, Patsy Ludwig, Davene Lamm, Ann Wiley, Grace Ann Smalley, Joanne Roberts, Anita Voekel, and Erlyne Green

Popular Record

SECOND ROW: Ann Williams, Patsy Dillard, Doris Heaton, Betty Jo Heaton, Elvin French, Jimmy Frazier, Joycelaine Neff, Margaret Carpenter.

THIRD ROW: Rose Ann Griffin, Clemmie Falk, Gwendolyn Moos, Dan McCafferty, Dolores Felder, Carol Rains, Evelyn Spangler, Dorothy Hello, Jesse Bennight, Cecil Holder.

Bach, Brahms, and Beethoven were great, certainly, but Crosby, Como, and Carle are lots groovier. The members of the Popular Record Club manage to play several hits at each meeting, while they talk over their latest swoon sensations.

Sportsman and Rifle

The Sportsman and Rifle Club holds shooting meets regularly at Camp Mabry, where most of the boys develop an eye for the target. Here they also learn the different stances and various shooting positions which prove useful in the fine art of finding the bullseye.

FIRST ROW: Jack Lingren, Melvin Patterson, Leo Mueller, Horace Perry.
SECOND ROW: Ray Thorsen, Thomas Presley, David Kaster, Bobby Pearson, Bill Gannaway.

Mr. Hicks is showing Mack Lynn, Donald Horton, Kenneth Arnold, Jack Chick, Richard Jackson, and Bob Fowler the business end of a rifle, the trigger.

Science Research

Looking for amoeba are Bill Felsing, Vice-President; Arval Bohn, Treasurer; Tommy Baker, Secretary; Betty Williams, Jeri Edgar, Reporter; and Harris Dalrymple, President.

FIRST ROW: Jeri Edgar, Mrs. Boon, Dulcie Beerstecher, Jeanette Adamcik.

SECOND ROW: Ernest Beck, Betty Williams, Frank Cooksey, Coleman Gay, Richard Thompson, Tom Leach.

THIRD ROW: Harris Dalrymple, Arnold Romberg, Roger Taylor, Charles White.

While some weak-minded students would say, "Ooooh," at seeing a dissected worm, the strong-minded members of the Science Research Club would say, "My, how interesting!"

This club was organized so students interested in scientific development could get together to exchange ideas and compare projects.

Stamp Club

Where do your old stamps go? If they're unusual or foreign a member of the Stamp Club will gladly take them off your hands. To the philatelist stamps are the spice of life.

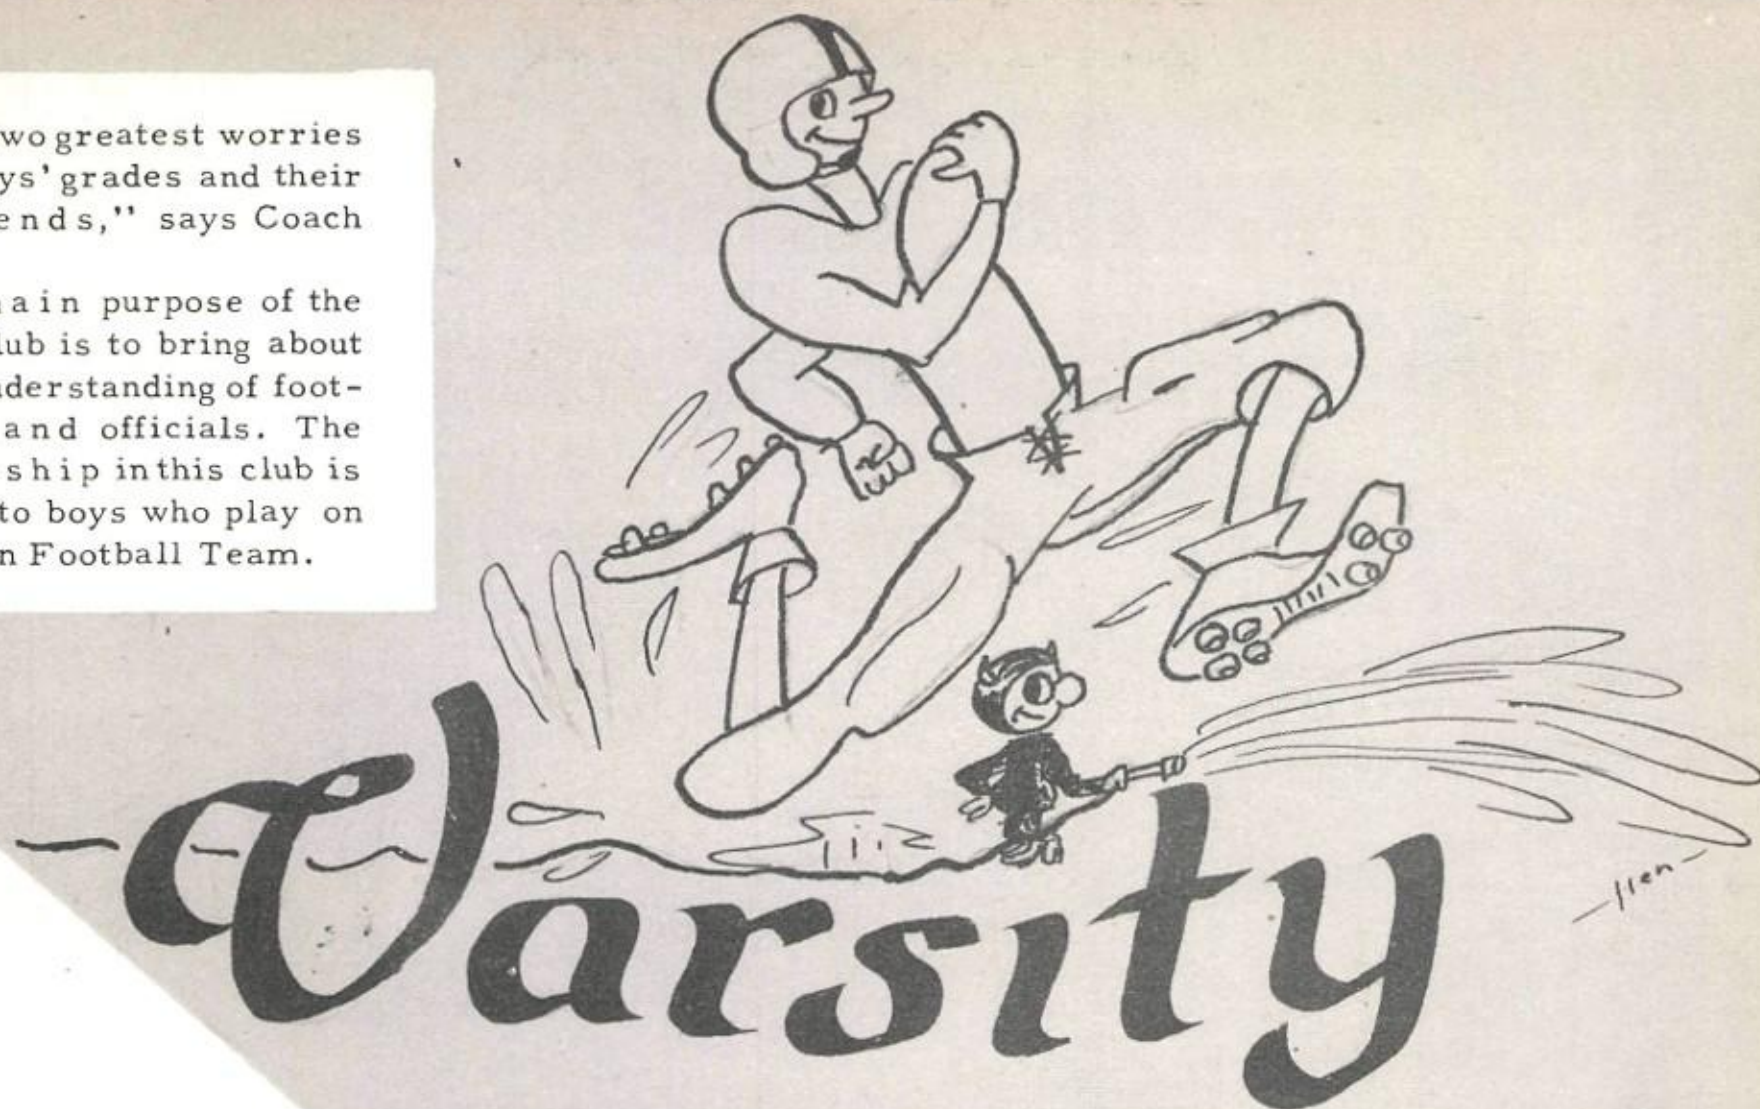

"Where'd you get this one?" asks Jerry Rasor as Clyde Fuller, Judson McClure, and Raeburn Miller look on.

Discussing new issues are Cecil Holder, Robert Kier, Douglas Jourdan, and Allen Reinartz. At the desk are Donald Boner and Miss Louise Manigault.

"Our two greatest worries are our boys' grades and their girl friends," says Coach Kitchen.

The main purpose of the Varsity Club is to bring about a better understanding of football rules and officials. The membership in this club is limited to boys who play on the Maroon Football Team.

THIRD ROW: Tommy Flow, Stanley Studer, J. T. Seaholm, Joe Bunch, Leighton Younger, Bill Dockery, Leonard Molberg, Bill Trafton, Pat Pate, Marvin Hocker.

FOURTH ROW: Roy Haliburton, Oliver Bradshaw, Joe Ireland, Morris Nelson, Frank Hernandez, John Berry, Marvin Armstrong, Bobby Frederick, Wayne Agnew.

FIFTH ROW: Eddie Morris, Walter Leonard, Taylor Meeks, Buddy Teich, Curtis Blackmore, Lyman Preston, Maury Lloyd, Phil Bashara, Glendon Bushong.

FINAL ROW: Mr. Kitchen, Mr. Lawler, Mr. Kline.

Western Warblers

If you hear a yodel, reasonable facsimile thereof, come floating down the halls some Friday at class period, don't be alarmed, it's only the Western Warblers warming up for the regular session of singing the latest western ballads.

This club was organized strictly for fun. It had its share of parties and entered a beautiful float in the May Festival parade.

Y-Teens

Making plans for the candlelight recognition service held every semester are Joan Mugely, Second Vice-President; Georgia Wenzel, Claire Yeagley, Secretary; Jo Ann McCaleb, Kathleen Schulze, Beverly De Witt, Lynn Caughron, Francis Faires, and Patsy Hunt.

Discussing a social are the Cabinet made up of Christine Lindsey, President; Ann Mundt, First Vice-President; Scottie Stevenson, Treasurer; Millicent Huff, Reporter; Charmaine Bellamy, Chairman; Jennie Gilbert, Chairman, and Jacque Wycoff, Chairman.

As junior members of the WCA the Y-Teens participate in many activities for the betterment of our community.

Each summer the officers attend a training conference. Recently reorganized, the Y-Teens now hold weekly meetings after school to consider what is next on their crowded agenda.

A recognition service to dedicate old members and acquaint new members with this worthwhile organization is held each semester.

Planning what they will wear to the "Old Flame Social" are Georgia Wenzel, Patsy Hunt, Peggy Porter, Nancy West, Jean Lucksinger, Carol Primes, and Rosemary Austin.

Future Teachers of America

Whether you would rather teach the intricacies of some foreign language, or fascinate your students with frogs, worms, and amoeba, you can still get off to a fine start by learning something about the requisites of the teaching profession.

Members of the Future Teachers Club have a chance to meet well-known educators and become better acquainted with them. During these meetings, questions of the opportunities in the teaching profession are debated.

Acquainting themselves with a teacher's endless duties are Velia Garcia, Camilla Berkley, Marjorie Mugno, Van Shaw, Phyllis Moore, Willa Harris, and Sue Burks.

Tennis Club

Tennis enthusiasts belonging to this club were shown informative movies of national professional champions.

Mr. Lewis Hilley, city tennis pro, demonstrated different types of racquets for use by all players, when he visited the club.

During the year the latest official U.S.L.T.A. rules were presented and tennis discussions were held to incite the growing interest in tennis at Austin High.

These enthusiastic exponents of the racquet are (left to right):
 BOTTOM ROW: Jerry Copeland, Charles Akin, James Ray, George Webb, George Murray, Joe Gault.
 TOP ROW: Don Kobe, John Murchison, Landrum Hickman, Lauchlin McLaurin, Walter Guttman, Gene Walz, Carl Burger, Herbie Nolen, Bradley Hubbard, Phillip Cochran.

Caudable Linemen

PAUL EARNEY, GUARD

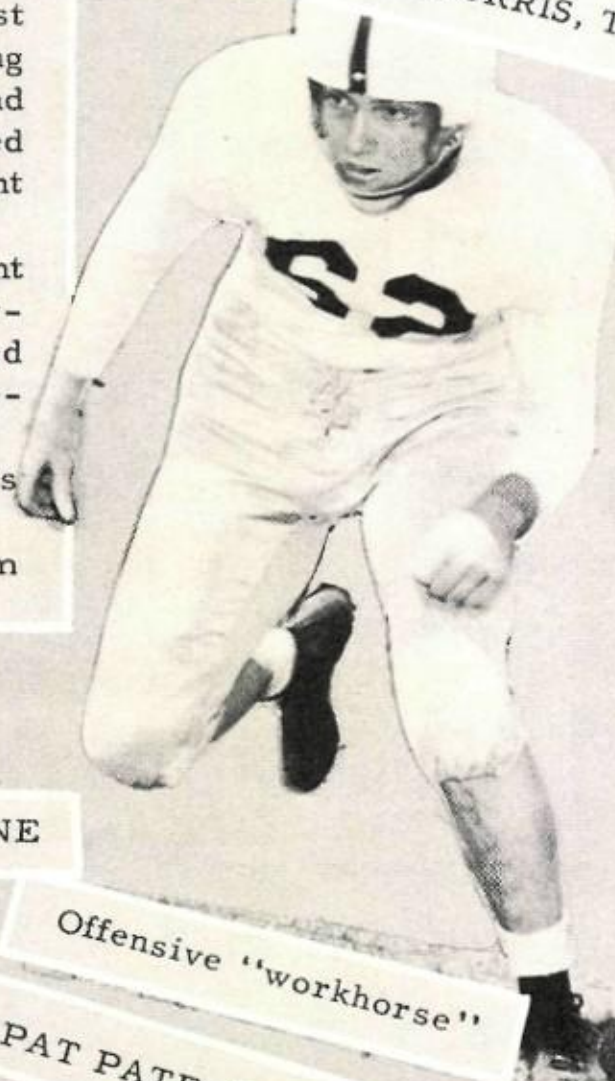

The Maroons boasted some of Texas' most aggressive linemen. These boys, coached by Forrest Kline, backed by the reverberating voices of Austin High students, and powered by devastating backs, led the Maroons through a triumphant season to the State Finals.

Spotlighted mostly on gallant goal line stands and terrific interference, the generally unheralded line received due credit from state-wide football fans.

"The Maroon line - a coach's dream".

Kash-Karry

Boots and Saddle Club members really know what the best part of a picnic is — or just ask anyone who has been riding a horse in the hills around Austin — it's food! And Kash-Karry can fix you up with all the trimmings. Robert Schmidt, Mr. Paul Morgan, Jack Shriver, Mike Gillespie, Joe Perry, Betty McBrayer, Miss Ruth Knoepfli, Jack Hennig, Sonny Davis, Pat Hennig, and Jenny Stogsdill will vouch for the picnic Kash-Karry presented them.

1890: A BOY WITH A PIGGY-BANK

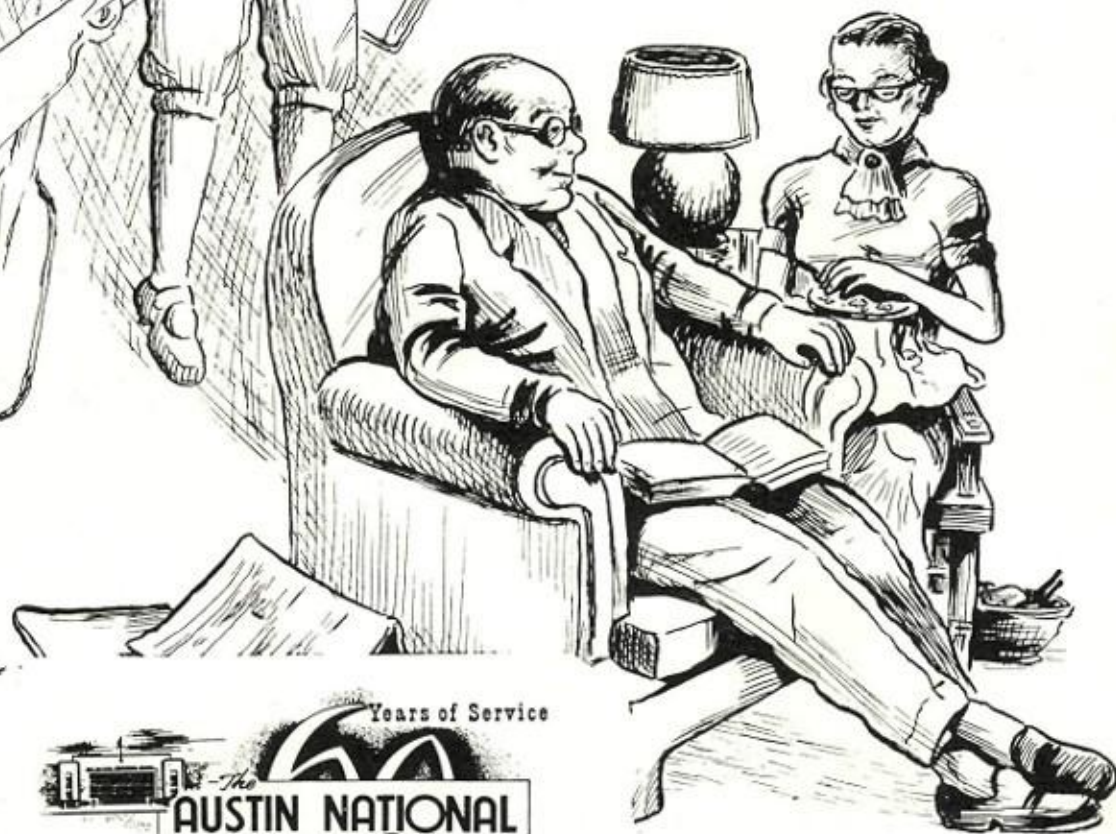

1950: A MAN SUCCESSFULLY RETIRED

In America a boy's hopes and dreams can come true—his future secure.
As a man he can build a larger and more successful business.
As a father he can give his family all the things they want and need.

The AUSTIN NATIONAL is proud of the part they have had in helping others to prosper as they have prospered.

This week we celebrate our 60th anniversary.

To us it is much more—It is the realization of an ideal, of hopes and dreams come true.

Above is the First Prize winner in The Austin National Bank's 60th Anniversary Advertising Contest. This was the best of many outstanding entries, turned in by Austin Maroons.

The Winner: Phil Bashara, Jr. of 4503 Red River. In grade 11-B, he's 17 and has done art-work since he was old enough to hold a brush. Plans to go to college where he can study art. A likeable fellow, Phil seems destined to go far in his chosen field. The Friendly Bank takes pride in helping further his career.

In a beautiful home setting at H. M. Oetting Furniture Company, Joyce Rydberg, Jean Wynn, Jayne Darsey, Margaret Jo Piland, Debbie Horton, and Jerry Johnson enjoy a game of Canasta.

Hart, Austin, Perry, Williams, Kelley, Byram, Shipman, Grainge, Caldwell

Early comers in the season find the spring "not so hot" for diving.

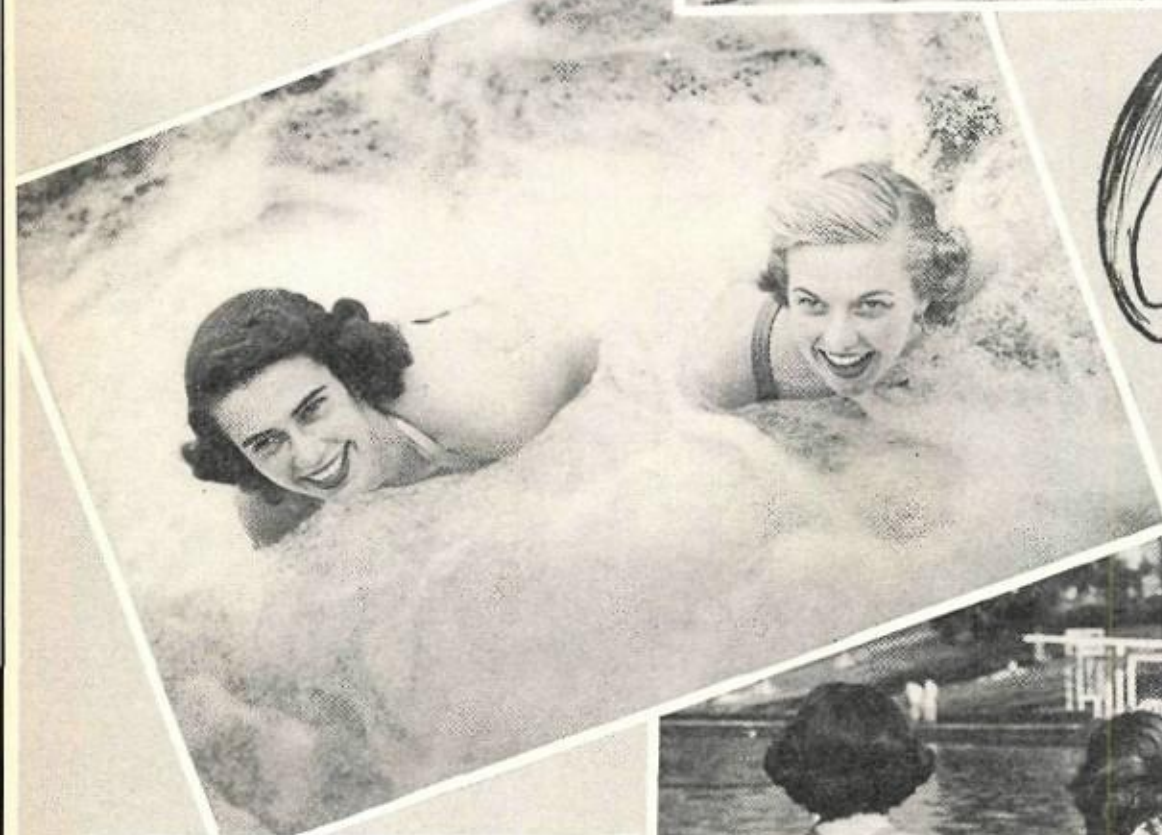

Summer or winter this group of water-loving boys and girls practice their many strokes and dives at the many "swimming holes" around Austin.

HOWARD KUHLMAN

AUTHORIZED LINCOLN-MERCURY DEALER

AUSTIN, TEXAS

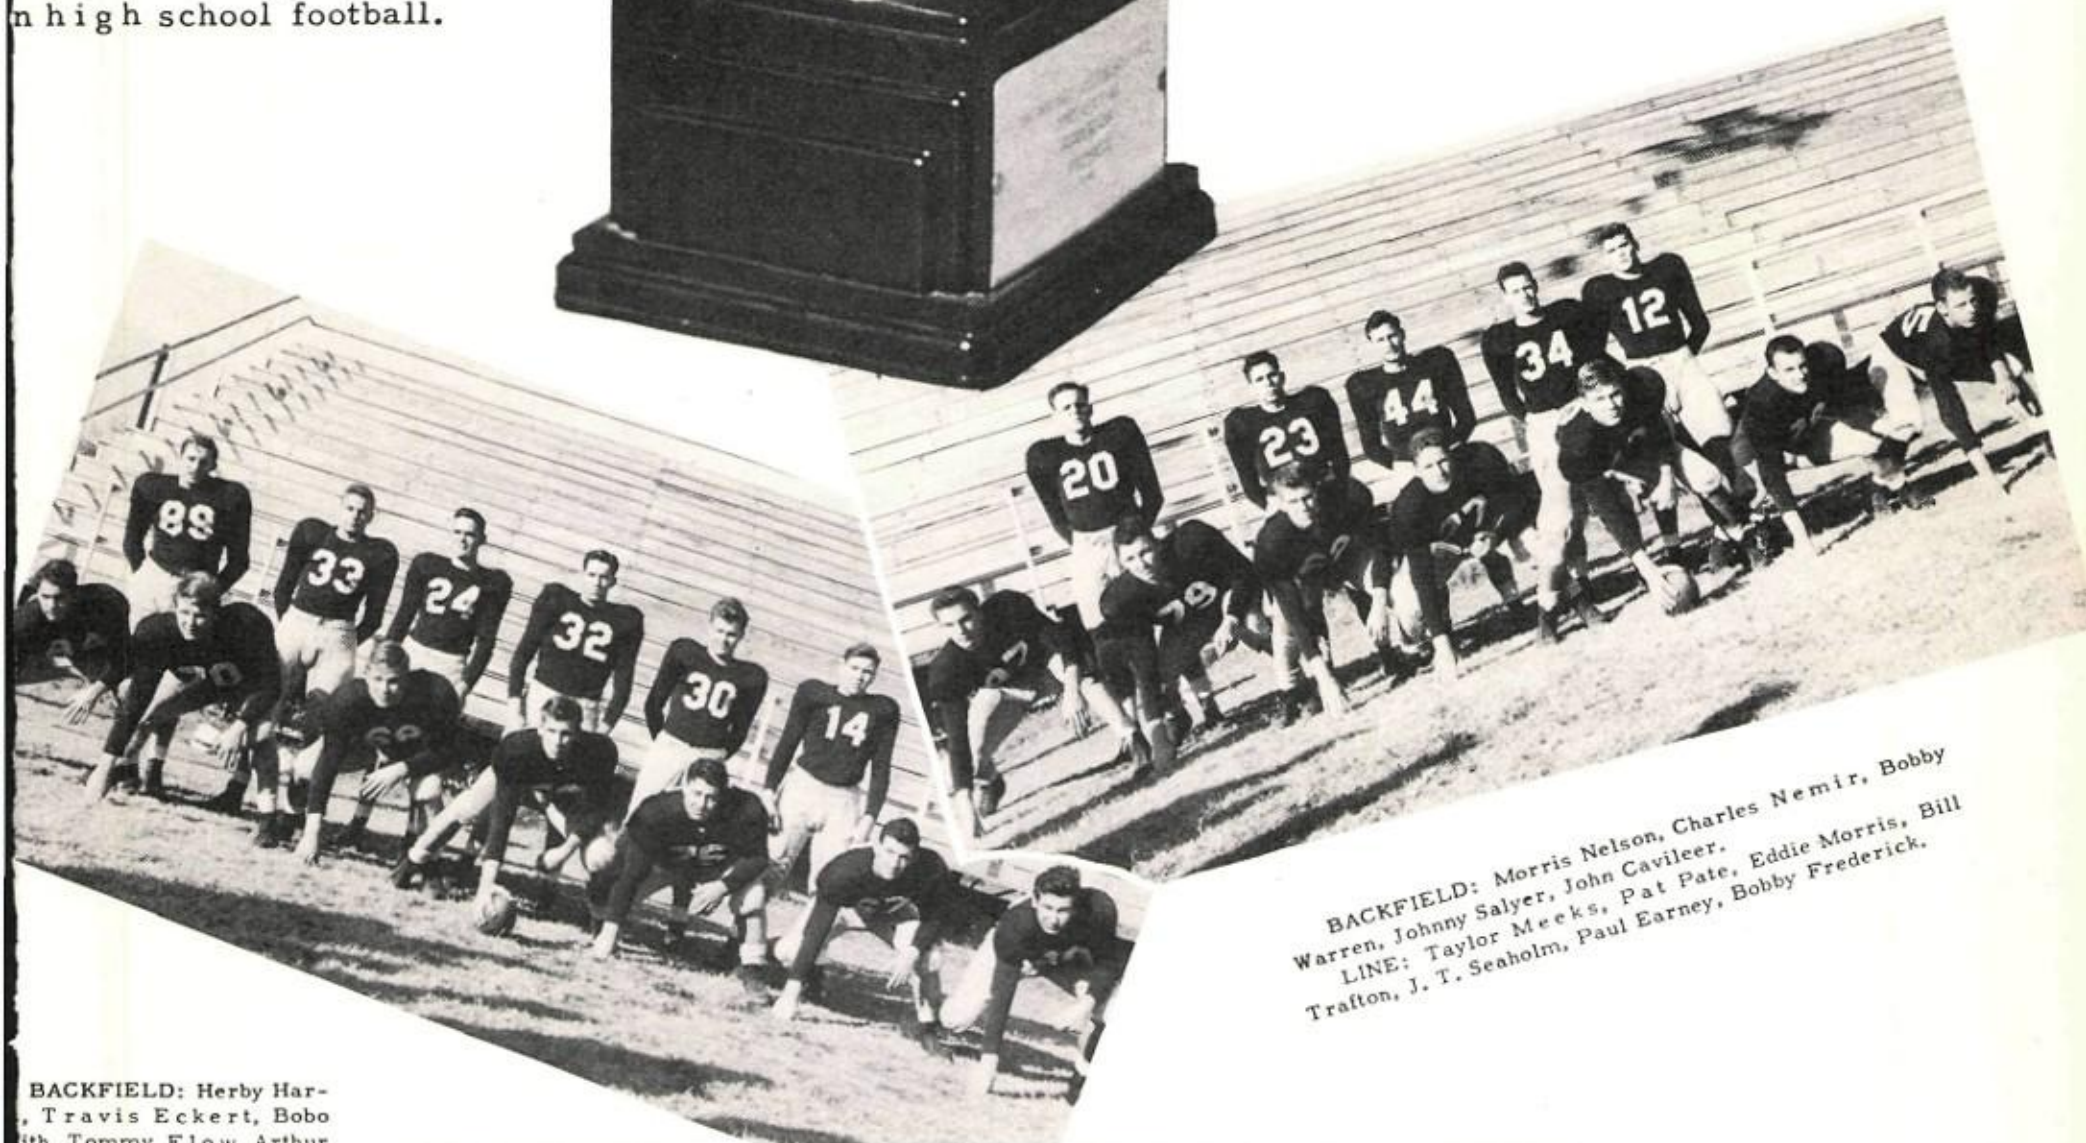

...The strains of "Loyal Forever" float through the air... shortly a group of Maroon-clad figures burst out of a handclasp huddle... goose pimples pop out and the excitement sends chills to your spine... THE KICKOFF...

These moments are very typical of a successful football season which saw the Maroons rise to towering heights in high school football.

Here we introduce the Maroon football squad, the offensive unit and the defensive unit. However, these boys need no introduction, for their record has made them as familiar to Austin High students as football itself.

"University Interscholastic League Conference AA Runners-up". This inscription on the team trophy briefly tells the story of one of the greatest football teams ever to come out of Austin High.

LOYAL FOREVER

Moderato

By WELDON COVINGTON

Loy - al For - ev - er to Ma - roon and White

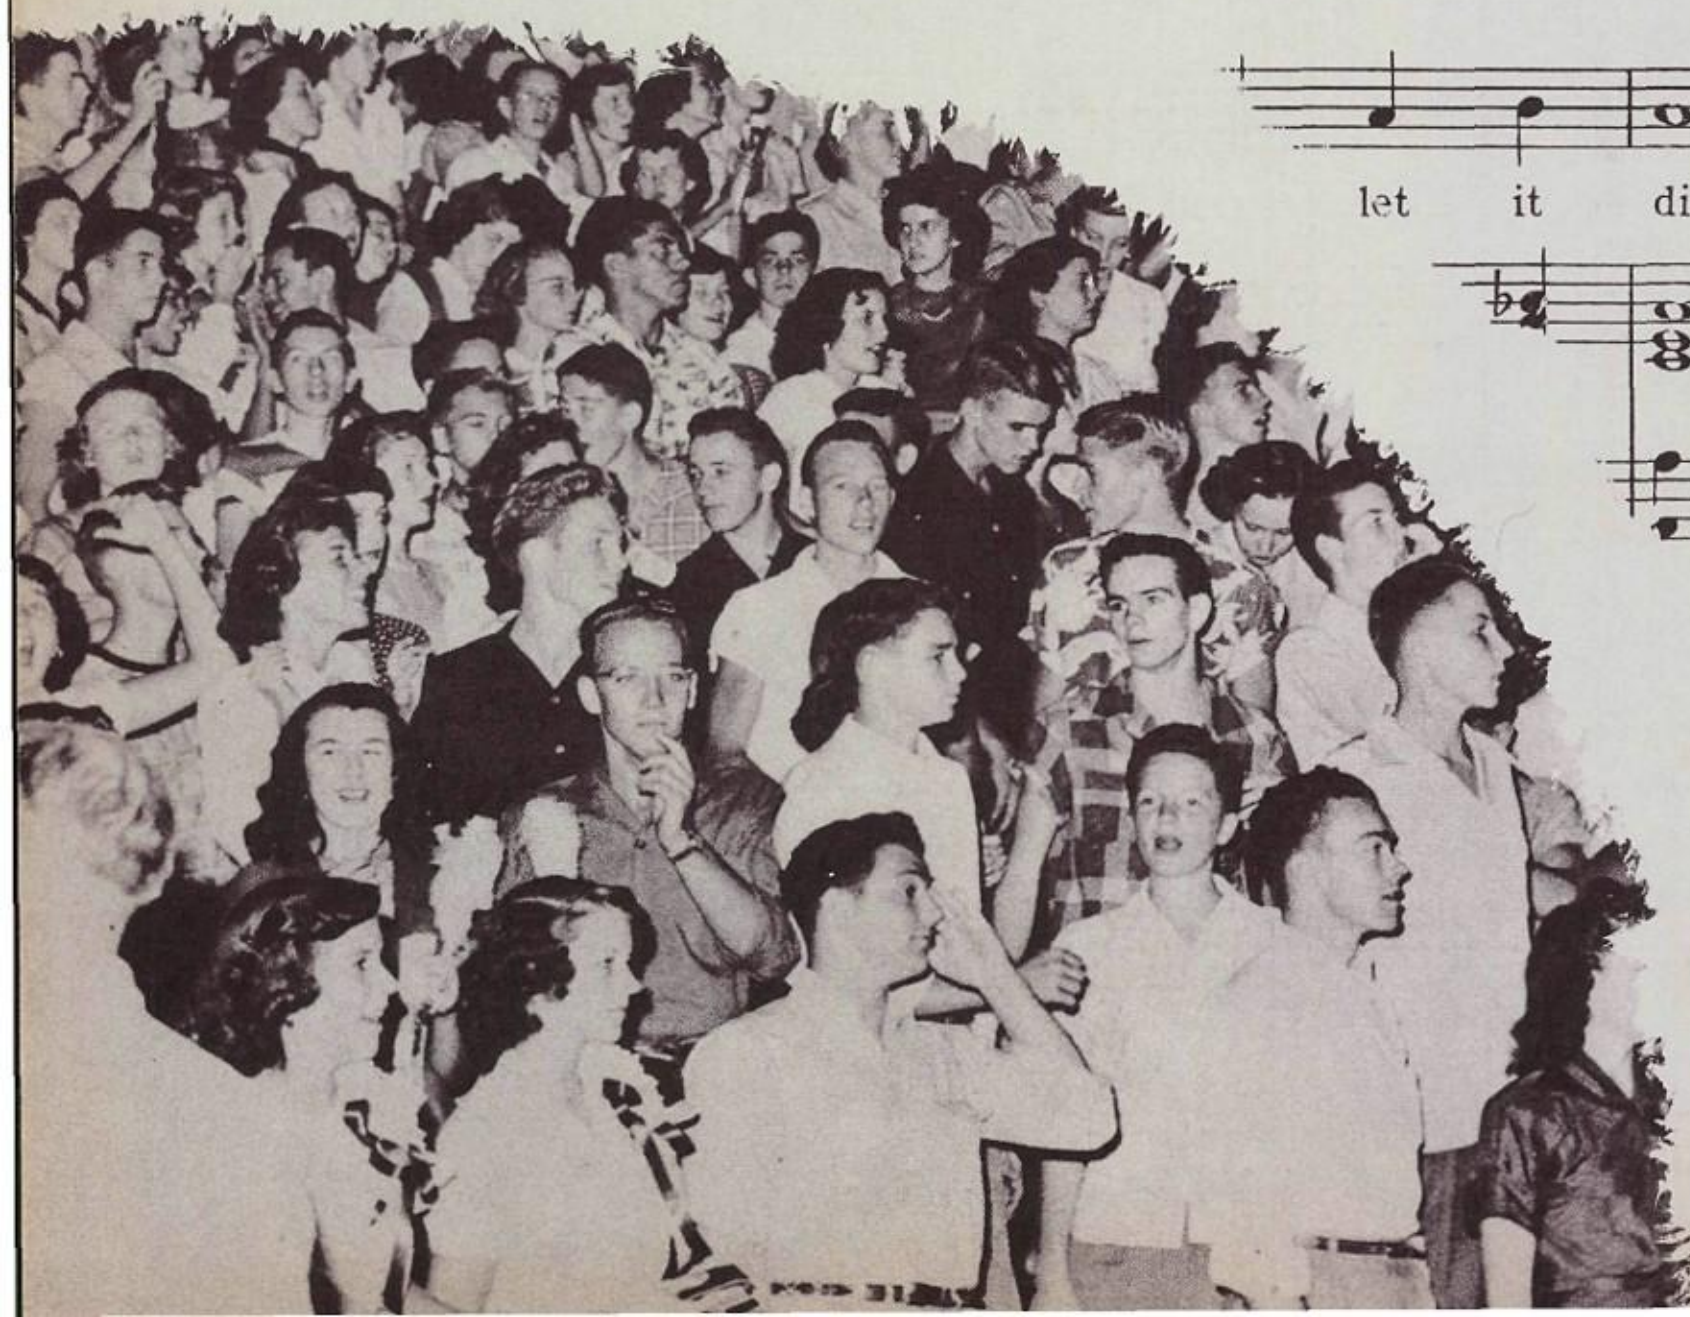

The first system of musical notation for 'Loyal Forever'. It features a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The lyrics 'Loy - al For - ev - er to Ma - roon and White' are written below the vocal line. The piano part includes a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking.

Our col - ors fly - ing for - ward as a sym - bol of our might —

The second system of musical notation. It continues the vocal and piano parts. The lyrics 'Our col - ors fly - ing for - ward as a sym - bol of our might —' are written below the vocal line. The piano part features a crescendo hairpin.

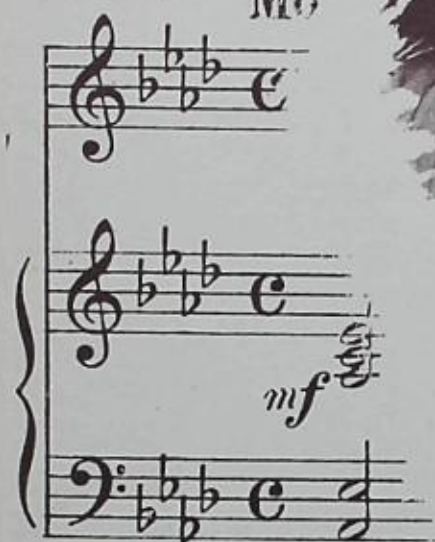

let it die

The third system of musical notation, which concludes the piece. It includes the lyrics 'let it die' and continues the vocal and piano parts. The piano part features a decrescendo hairpin.
